TWO PURITAN ANCESTORS: John Plympton and Nathaniel Sutliffe

JOHN PLYMPTON - born bef. 1620 in England

Although his family was Catholic, he accepted the religious views of the Puritans, was persecuted by friends and relatives. He left home and indentured himself before 1640 as servant to Dr. George Alcocke to pay his passage to New England. Dr. Alcocke died in Roxbury MA 1640, naming John Plympton in his will.

1642-3 John purchased two acres of woodland at Dedham, MA; was received into the Dedham church (implies 1 yr.'s residency); and was admitted freeman of the Colony of Dedham. (at least age 21 yrs. by 1643)

1643 - joined the Incorporated Artillery Company at Boston, an organization now known as The Ancient and Honorary Artillery of The Massachusetts Bay Colony. Descendants of John may claim membership in this society.

1644 - married Jane Damain March 13. (Jane was age 9 in 1835 when she came with her mother Abigail and step-father John Eaton on the ship Elizabeth & Ann.

1645 - Hannah, "ye daughter of brother Joh. Plympton and his wife Jane was baptised" March 1. Twelve other children were subsequently born to John and Jane.

1649 - Oct 14 - John's name appeared on a list of those assembled to consider the erection and development of Bogastow (later called Medford) MA. A grant was obtained 22 Oct of 1649. He is considered one of Medford's founders.

1652 - John was on the Medford tax list and was present at a December town meeting.

1661 - NATHANIEL SUTLIFFE paid county taxes at Dedham, MA.
Was born Scituate, MA 1638. His father and grandfather came to Plymouth in 1623 and settled soon after in Scituate, MA. His grandfather Abraham Sutliffe was born 1574, Yorkshire. Nathaniel's father Abraham Jr. was born 1610, Yorkshire. The names of their wives is not known.

1663 - Nathaniel was living in Medford, where he was on record as one of those helping to build a meeting house.

1665 - Hannah Plympton m. Nathaniel Sutliffe Jan.31.

1667 - Both John Plympton and Nathaniel Sutliffe were among 70 contributors to an educational fund for the erection of buildings for a college, afterward called Harvard, now Harvard Univ.

While in Medford, John Plympton was one of two surveyors of highways (1661); one of three chosen to "burn the woods" for the herd walks (1666); one of two constables (1667); selected with others to execute the town's orders restricting swine (1670); appointed to committee of three to lay out a road through the swamp to Stop River, later called Long Causeway. He was also a fence viewer. At this time, Nathaniel Sutliffe's home was 100 yards west of John Plympton's.

1671-2 - John Plympton and Nathaniel Sutliffe applied to become settlers of a new village located at Pocomtuck (Deerfield). At a proprietors' meeting 4 Dec 1672, John Plympton was allowed to buy land at Pocomtuck provided "the said Plympton will settle there in his own person." This has been interpreted to mean that those organizing the new settlement really wanted and needed John Plympton. In 1772, both John and Nathaniel signed a petition to change the name of the settlement to Deerfild.

1673 - Nov. 7- The Plymptons and Sutliffes were living in Deerfield, where they attended a meeting of the inhabitants and proprietors.

King Philip's War: (1675-76) Philip was the name which the English settlers gave to Metacomet, chief of the Wampanoag Indians. Philip was the son of Massosoit, who was a friend of the colonists. Philip was also friendly with the settlers, but believed that the newcomers would cause the destruction of the Indians, and he joined an uprising which involved other New England tribes, who were displaced by the English.

All New England frontier towns were required to prepare for their own defense. John Plympton was appointed Sgt. for active service in Deerfield. His home, as well as some others, became stockaded garrisons. He was known to the end of his life as Sgt.John, although he was raised during the war to the rank of captain.

1675 - Sep.1-14 - Indians attacked and burned the north part of Deerfield.

Sep 18 - Jonathan Plympton, son of John and Jane, was killed by Indians in the massacre of Bloody Brook Bridge. Deerfield was abandoned and subsequently burned by the Indians.

1676 - May 19, Nathaniel Sutliffe was killed with Capt. Turner at the Falls (Pesheomsaket). Tradition holds that he was burned at the stake. He left Hannah, his wife, and four children--Hannah, Judith, Nathaniel Jr. and John. His widow, John Plympton's daughter, remarried Samuel Harrington and they moved to Branford, CT. where young Hannah met and married Thomas Whedon Jr. 1 Oct 1684.

King Philip was hunted down and killed in 1676, and the war with the Indians was thought to be over, although Indians were still a threat as they moved west or north to new homes.

1677 - Sep 19 - John Plimpton returned to Deerfield that summer, planted corn and rebuilt his house. The house was 18 feet long and the only one completed in the second settlement that year. Just two years and one day after the death of his son Jonathan, Indians reappeared and captured John and four others in the village, including Quenton Stockwell who left a first hand account of their experiences.

They were led away into the woods where they were joined by more Indians and English captives, bringing finally the total group to about eighty--nine men and the rest women and children. John Plimpton persuaded the men not to attempt escape, lest the Indians take revenge on those left behind, especially the women and children.

The Indian captors were mostly Norwattucks (River Indians) who had moved north as a result of King Philip's War. The French had aided them with supplies and promises of payment for English persons captured.

In the days that followed, they traveled north along the Connecticut River. They were the first white people to cross the Green Mountains. At night the Indians celebrated with wild scalp dances and victory dances. They painted their faces, brandished their weapons, screamed and leaped about the fire to the terror and fascination of the captives. Some Indians, stimulated by the festivities, regularly demanded torture by fire on the spot. Their chief Ashpelon kept his people under control.

The weather turned colder and food became scarce. Even the Indians went hungry. The captives were thinly clad and some were barefoot. The hardships of their journey are detailed in Stockwell's account. About the end of September, when the party had reached the frontier town of Chambley near the Canadian border, the death which had continually threatened John Plympton became a reality. Having survived all the sufferings of the journey, he was finally burned at the stake. A survivor reported that "the old man went serenely to his dreadful death."

Denouement: Rescuers had begun to locate the captive English by mid-November 1677. The people of Massachusetts raised the money to pay their ransom. By spring of 1678, the survivors had returned home. Only three persons lost their lives: Sgt. John Plympton, another man and a little girl. Two babies were born in captivity.

A grant of land was made by the town of Deerfield to the children of Nathaniel and Hannah Sutliffe presumably in payment for his service in King Philip's War. John and Nathaniel Sutliffe Jr. were among the founders of the town of Durham, CT. Others from Deerfield also moved to Durham.

John Plympton's estate was settled in Sept. 1778; and his story is told repeatedly in many old historical and biographical records.

Tablets have been placed in Deerfield Memorial Hall in memory of the Deerfield pioneers, including both John Plympton and Nathaniel Sutliffe.

In 1772, both John and Nathaniel signed a petition to change the name of the settlement to Deerfild.

1673 - Nov. 7- The Plymptons and Sutliffes were living in Deerfield, where they attended a meeting of the inhabitants and proprietors.

King Philip's War: (1675-76) Philip was the name which the English settlers gave to Metacomet, chief of the Wampanoag Indians. Philip was the son of Massosoit, who was a friend of the colonists. Philip was also friendly with the settlers, but believed that the newcomers would cause the destruction of the Indians, and he joined an uprising which involved other New England tribes, who were displaced by the English.

All New England frontier towns were required to prepare for their own defense. John Plympton was appointed Sgt. for active service in Deerfield. His home, as well as some others, became stockaded garrisons. He was known to the end of his life as Sgt.John, although he was raised during the war to the rank of captain.

1675 - Sep.1-14 - Indians attacked and burned the north part of Deerfield.

Sep 18 - Jonathan Plympton, son of John and Jane, was killed by Indians in the massacre of Bloody Brook Bridge. Deerfield was abandoned and subsequently burned by the Indians.

1676 - May 19, Nathaniel Sutliffe was killed with Capt. Turner at the Falls (Pesheomsaket). Tradition holds that he was burned at the stake. He left Hannah, his wife, and four children--Hannah, Judith, Nathaniel Jr. and John. His widow, John Plympton's daughter, remarried Samuel Harrington and they moved to Branford, CT. where young Hannah met and married Thomas Whedon Jr. 1 Oct 1684.

King Philip was hunted down and killed in 1676, and the war with the Indians was thought to be over, although Indians were still a threat as they moved west or north to new homes.

1677 - Sep 19 - John Plimpton returned to Deerfield that summer, planted corn and rebuilt his house. The house was 18 feet long and the only one completed in the second settlement that year. Just two years and one day after the death of his son Jonathan, Indians reappeared and captured John and four others in the village, including Quenton Stockwell who left a first hand account of their experiences.

They were led away into the woods where they were joined by more Indians and English captives, bringing finally the total group to about eighty--nine men and the rest women and children. John Plimpton persuaded the men not to attempt escape, lest the Indians take revenge on those left behind, especially the women and children.

The Indian captors were mostly Norwattucks (River Indians) who had moved north as a result of King Philip's War. The French had aided them with supplies and promises of payment for English persons captured.

In the days that followed, they traveled north along the Connecticut River. They were the first white people to cross the Green Mountains. At night the Indians celebrated with wild scalp dances and victory dances. They painted their faces, brandished their weapons, screamed and leaped about the fire to the terror and fascination of the captives. Some Indians, stimulated by the festivities, regularly demanded torture by fire on the spot. Their chief Ashpelon kept his people under control.

The weather turned colder and food became scarce. Even the Indians went hungry. The captives were thinly clad and some were barefoot. The hardships of their journey are detailed in Stockwell's account. About the end of September, when the party had reached the frontier town of Chambley near the Canadian border, the death which had continually threatened John Plympton became a reality. Having survived all the sufferings of the journey, he was finally burned at the stake. A survivor reported that "the old man went serenely to his dreadful death."

Denouement: Rescuers had begun to locate the captive English by mid-November 1677. The people of Massachusetts raised the money to pay their ransom. By spring of 1678, the survivors had returned home. Only three persons lost their lives: Sgt. John Plympton, another man and a little girl. Two babies were born in captivity.

A grant of land was made by the town of Deerfield to the children of Nathaniel and Hannah Sutliffe presumably in payment for his service in King Philip's War. John and Nathaniel Sutliffe Jr. were among the founders of the town of Durham, CT. Others from Deerfield also moved to Durham.

John Plympton's estate was settled in Sept. 1778; and his story is told repeatedly in many old historical and biographical records.

Tablets have been placed in Deerfield Memorial Hall in memory of the Deerfield pioneers, including both John Plympton and Nathaniel Sutliffe.

Plympton in Annals.

TWO PURITAN ANCESTORS: John Plympton and Nathaniel Sutliffe

JOHN PLYMPTON - born bef. 1620 in England
According to one genealogy, the Plympton family was Catholic, but he accepted the religious views of Puritans and was persecuted by friends and relatives. He left home and indentured himself before 1640 as a servant to Dr. George Alcocke to pay his passage to New England. Dr. Alcocke died in Roxbury MA 1640, naming John Plympton in his will. One family record says he bought the balance of his time with Dr. Alcocke in 1641 for five pounds.

1642-3 John purchased two acres of woodland at Dedham, MA; was received into the Dedham church (implies 1 yr.'s residency); and was admitted freeman of the Colony of Dedham. (at least age 21 yrs. by 1643)

1643 - John joined the Incorporated Artillery Company at Boston, an organization now known as The Ancient and Honorary Artillery of The Massachusetts Bay Colony. Descendants of John may claim membership in this society. (Hist. Society lists him.)

1644 - He married Jane Dammin March 13. (Jane was age 9 in 1835 when she came with her mother Abigail and step-father John Eaton on the ship Elizabeth & Ann.

1645 - Hannah, "ye daughter of brother Joh.Plympton and his wife Jane was baptised" March 1. Twelve other children were subsequently born to John and Jane. ~~Some of their names also~~ appear in Dedham church records. They are listed in D Ch. Rec. and/or Savage

1649 - Oct 14 - John's name appeared on a list of those assembled to consider the erection and development of Bogastow (later called Medford) MA. A grant was obtained 22 Oct of 1649. He is considered one of Medford's founders.

1652 - John was on the Medford tax list and was present at a December town meeting.

1665, Jan.31 - Hannah Plympton, daughter of John, married Nathaniel Sutliffe.

NATHANIEL SUTLIFFE
1661 - Nathaniel Sutliffe paid county taxes at Dedham, MA. Was born Scituate, MA 1638. His father and grandfather came to Plymouth in 1623 and settled soon after in Scituate, MA. His grandfather Abraham Sutliffe was born 1574, Yorkshire. Nathaniel's father Abraham Jr. was born 1610, Yorkshire. The names of their wives is not known.

1663 - Nathaniel was living in Medford, where he was on record as one of those helping to build a meeting house.

1665 - Nathaniel and Hannah (Plympton) were married Jan.31.

1661 - Nathaniel Sutliffe paid county taxes at Dedham, MA. Was born Scituate, MA 1638. His father and grandfather came to Plymouth in 1623 and settled soon after in Scituate, MA. His grandfather Abraham Sutliffe was born 1574, Yorkshire. Nathaniel's father Abraham Jr. was born 1610, Yorkshire. The names of their wives is not known.

1663 - Nathaniel was living in Medford, where he was on record as one of those helping to build a meeting house.

1665 - Nathaniel and Hannah (Plympton) were married Jan.31.

1667 - Both John Plympton and Nathaniel Sutliffe were among 70 contributors to an educational fund for the erection of buildings for a college, afterward called Harvard, now Harvard Univ.

While in Medford, John Plympton was one of two surveyors of highways (1661); one of three chosen to "burn the woods" for the herd walks (1666); one of two constables (1667); selected with others to execute the town's orders restricting swine (1670); appointed to committee of three to lay out a road through the swamp to Stop River, later called Long Causeway. He was also a fence viewer. At this time, Nathaniel Sutliffe's home was 100 yards west of John Plympton's.

1671-2 - John Plympton and Nathaniel Sutliffe applied to become settlers of a new village located at Pocomtuck (Deerfield). At a proprietors' meeting 4 Dec 1672, John Plympton was allowed to buy land at Pocomtuck provided "the said Plympton will settle there in his own person." This has been interpreted to mean that those organizing the new settlement really wanted and needed John Plympton. In 1772, both John and Nathaniel signed a petition to change the name of the settlement to Deerfield. N. bought rights on Commons for 6 cows & 1 sheep of age. He was an original occupant of his farm, and had brought it into a fair state of cultivation and erected a comfortable frame house. Matteson was the occupant of a small frame house in the southwest corner of the Bacon tract. He was William Bacon's agent for the sale of the land, and at the same time kept an inn. The stand was used for a tavern for a period of between forty and fifty years.

On the road running southeast from Charles Woodruff's place we find a log house occupied by Elijah Rose, a mason by trade and well advanced in years. In the house with her father lived Triphena Evans, who died there in 1875, at the age of ninety-two years. Next, south, was the dwelling of Jesse Ackley, of Connecticut. He was living upon a tract taken up by his father. A Mrs. Walker, a daughter, resides in district No. 20. Beyond Ackley was his brother Aaron, on part of the same lot. A shoemaker by trade, he carried on work in his house, and gave time not thus required to his farm. Jarius Rose, a settler in 1792, as is shown by his appointment to the office of constable in the spring election of that year, had made his home where Albert B. Cooley now lives, and was the owner of five hundred acres. Benjamin Sheldon, of Sheffield, Massachusetts, came out in 1812, bought of Rose, and in 1814 was living in a good two-story house. The next lot below Sheldon was owned by Gideon Granger, and occupied by a tenant. Various lots were partially occupied by persons of small means, who dwelt in log cabins, and were not known outside of their immediate neighborhood. The first brick house in the district was built by Mr. Granger, on lot 57, in 1815. Frederick Cooley is the present inhabitant. On Sucker brook was a saw-mill built by Ira Wilder, about 1825, on the Callister farm. It was long in use, and finally let run to decay. The first blacksmith in the district was Clark Eldridge, who had several shops—one of them on Wilder's premises. A man named Callon was another of his craft. The majority of the church people are Methodist, while other societies have a scattering membership. From a book whose first entry gives "John Carpenter, clerk of School District No. 1, June 9, 1813," we learn of a meeting held on June 4 preceding, at the house of Benjamin Sheldon, when Jesse Ackley, B. Sheldon, and James Thomas were chosen trustees, and Charles Woodruff collector. It was voted to build a school-house on the road from C. Woodruff's to Orimel Sheldon's, near the cross-roads. Various assemblies were had, and in one it was voted to build a brick house twenty-four by twenty-two feet. A regular meeting was ordered by John C. Spencer, common school commissioner, for February 14, 1815. Augus Sackett was clerk. A vote passed to build a house twenty feet by twenty-four feet. A tax of three hundred and eighty dollars was levied to supply means, and the building was to be ready for occupancy by October, 1815. Each proprietor was ordered to supply a half-cord of two-and-a-half foot wood. The first teacher, during the summer of 1815, was Polly Brownell, and the first of the winter teachers was Augustine Sackett. A Mr. Saunders was one of the best school-masters in the early day, and Marshal Finley was a good teacher of a later period.

District No. 3.—Lemuel Castle came here from Dutchess county in 1789, and soon after leased a place on lot 40, of Messrs. Phelps and Gorham. The place is now in possession of Hiram Case. The journey west was made with ox-teams, and goods and provisions came by water.

In 1792, Castle built a frame barn for the proprietors. Its dimensions are forty by sixty feet, and it is yet in service, having stood for eighty-four years. The old contract for building this pioneer barn is couched in the wordy language of the time, and is now in the possession of Francis J. Castle, a grandson of the pioneer. Having remained on this lease for some time, Mr. Castle purchased lot No. 44, one hundred and seventeen acres, upon which himself and his son Dyer moved, and began the work of clearing a tract of its forest growth preliminary to the transformation to a productive grain field. The grandson, resident of the farm, is now sixty-eight years of age, and the third generation has grown up on the old homestead. Elijah Hurd bought lot No. 40 when Mr. Castle moved from it, and this occurred some time in 1793. Where now stands the brick residence of George Hickox, that early day saw the log cabin of Ebenezer Williams, a carriage-maker and wheelwright. This pioneer was kept constantly employed, and lived here many years. Upon lot No. 45 came Colonel John Sutherland from the village, and bought out a man who had been there but a few months. In time Reuben Sutherland became the owner, and it has passed to the hands of his grandson, A. S. Sutherland. On the northeast corner of lot No. 74, north of the present school-house, lived the pioneer tavern-keeper, Seth Holcomb, who came out in 1792, was made the recipient of various offices, and became a public man. Nathan Briggs succeeded to the place, and there resided for some time. Among the early settlers of this locality, none stand out in the light of history more conspicuously than Captain George Hickox. He came to the town of Canandaigua on January 31, 1793. His first location was on lot No. 27, where Lorenzo Tillotson lives. In 1797, Mr. Hickox married Eunice Holcomb, who had come on from Massachusetts and opened a school in the log school-house which stood on No. 79. Miss Holcomb was one of the pioneer teachers, having begun in 1793, and taught continuously until the time of her marriage. One term was taught at the school-house near where Albert Smith now owns; the rest, at number No. 79. One of those who attended her school in that day became widely and favorably known as Joshua R. Giddings—an eminent and able legislator, and member of Congress from Ohio. When Captain Hickox came in, his only possessions were a yoke of oxen and an axe. His father took the oxen and a squaw stole his axe, and all that was left to him were a strong arm and a courageous mind not easily daunted. In 1793, Mr. Hickox helped Judge Stephen Bates to fell the timber for the court-house erected in 1794. The trees stood on Fort Hill and Gibson street. He was the first man to plow on that street for the initial crop there produced. He was captain of militia, and in December, 1813, during the burning of Buffalo, received an order at midnight to have his company in readiness to march, and at sunrise next morning had them on the public square in Canandaigua. Orders to march were countermanded, and the company was disbanded. He engaged, for a time, in transporting goods by ox-teams from Albany, at a period when there were twenty-three taverns on the route. His death occurred May 27, 1845. His father, Levi Hickox, came to the village in the latter part of 1790, and located where Alexander McKechnie lives. Judge Phelps having been taken sick was attended by Mr. Hickox, who was recompensed by a deed for three hundred acres of land, including lot No. 91, on the Bristol road, where Wells Goodwin now owns. Here he came, and among his acts was the planting of an orchard, which is still in existence to attest his providence. George Hickox, Jr., son of Captain Hickox, and grandson of Levi, resides in the town. During a harvest season, among the hands was Brigham Young, the Mormon prophet, who was raking and binding wheat at a dollar per day when he quit work for Mr. Hickox. It was, in all probability, the last honest day's labor he accomplished. About 1800, Joseph Van Orman located and built a house on lot No. 79, almost directly in front of the William Sutherland residence, now occupied by Thompson Sutherland. Near the house of Mr. Sutherland one Fleming had his home, and was engaged in carrying on a small distillery in the hollow just east of his house. In 1803, Daniel Case bought out Captain Hickox, and moved on to the place. He was made the incumbent of various town offices, and held that of justice of the peace for many years. Giles Mitchell was a pioneer settler upon lot No. 78 in 1794, but soon sold out, and Benjamin Wheeler was a later proprietor. On the southeast corner of lot No. 71 lived Mr. Giddings, father of the Ohio congressman above alluded to. Later, he removed to the State where the son became known to fame. Hugh Jameson came to this neighborhood among the earliest, and located where A. E. Smith resides, on lot No. 55. He was the builder of the brick house upon the place.

Centrefield District, No. 2.—Abner Barlow and Colonel Thaddeus Remington came to the town in 1790. The latter came on and located near Christian Hill, now Centrefield, in 1793. Colonel Remington was a native of Vermont, and settled where John Clark owns, and there resided until his death. He was prominent among the pioneers, and, as indicated by his title, was a colonel during the last war with England. He had a family of eight children. Thaddeus, a son, was born here in 1794, and died where he had lived during January, 1876. Mrs. Sophia Fosket, a daughter, resident of the town, is in her seventy-seventh year. Soon after the Remington settlement came David Hawley, and located where A. McCready resides; and about the same time Jesse Miller came in from the Black river country, and took up his residence where Mr. Crum now occupies. Captain Noah Heacock was an early occupant of this locality, and built a brick tavern in Centrefield, which he kept for some years,—among the first in the place. Isaac Morse, familiarly known as "Papa" Morse, settled south of Christian Hill, on lot 81. He was a man of large family, and an accomplished fiddler. He made lively music for young and old at the frequent festive gatherings delighted in by the early settlers. A grandson, E. H. Morse, is a present owner of the old farm. Enos and Henry Hawley were settlers prior to 1800, and remained upon their farms till their deaths, which were nearly at the same time. The first farm south of Remington's was that of Stephen Ward, a settler of 1799, and a man of varied experience, worthy a place in his county's history as illustrative of the shifts and labors incident to the time. Charles and Oliver Johnson were the pioneers upon the farm of O. E. Crittenden, and farther south lived Joseph and Joel Clark, who within a few years were attracted to Canada. Lyman Miller had a small building in Centreville on the site of the Williams' house. Harvey Steele lived on the south side of the road, a few rods west of the Hawleys, upon the farm of Walter Blair.

Oliver Rose was the first storekeeper in Centrefield. He began the mercantile business in a small frame building in the village some time about 1810, and opened a market for grain. A former school-master, he now became proprietor of a distillery which stood on the land of John Cooley about 1815. Justus Rose be-

MIGRATION PATTERNS IN NEW YORK

There was very little migration into New York from New England before the Revolution, and those who did come that early were mostly from Vermont coming into Washington County. There were a number of early New Jersey settlers who migrated into Orange and Ulster County, and then on to Cooperstown in Otsego County. The normal flow of very early migration was through the Mohawk Valley.

While the Revolution was a war for freedom, it was also a type of Civil War where many people favored the British rule and King. These were English, German, and Dutch people mainly, and they remained loyal to the King of England and so were called LOYALISTS. But they were considered traitors to American-minded people, and their property was taken from them or destroyed, and many were driven out. Many of these Loyalists fought for the King, and great numbers went to Canada where they were given land and support. After the war was over many returned to New York, and we will find children of New York people listed as being born in Canada for this reason.

Likewise Canada had much of the same problem, only reversed. Many people favored the American cause for freedom, but since they were in the minority there, they were driven out and termed Rebels. These came down into New York and were given refugee land and supported there. Many of them fought for the American cause.

Before the Revolutionary War the Indians as well as the British Government kept settlers out of the New York area west of the Mohawk Valley. The Iroquois and Mohawk Indians owned much of the New York land, and since they were on the losing side, they had little choice but to sell out and leave. Many of them went to Canada. Part of the land purchased by New York State from the Indians was designated as the Military Tract, and was used to pay the New York soldiers for their services in the war. (See the Land Development Section - Military Tract.)

When this land was given to the veterans, many of them became impatient about the many years wait for it, and sold out their interests and rights. Many land hungry New Englanders bought this land, and as a result many of the early settlers in the Military Tract were from New England. These were first from the state of Vermont, and then Western Massachusetts and Connecticut. Vermonters went either to the north or to the south of the Adirondack region and Massachusetts people from the area of the Berkshire Mountains went west of Albany and Schenectady and then spread on south into the counties of Delaware, Chenango, Broome and Cortland. From West Massachusetts and Connecticut, people moved into Columbia and Dutchess Counties, and then crossed the Hudson River to the area of the Catskills. Many from Connecticut moved on and on west ending up in Ohio on the Western Reserve.

Roads were so bad in those early days that most people traveled on the waterways whenever possible. The Susquehanna River from Pennsylvania brought many from that state who settled in Binghamton and other areas along this river. They sought more land for less money. With the coming of the Erie Canal in 1825, great numbers of people came through New York, and many were attracted along the way and settled the areas along the canal. Passenger travel was heavy on the Erie Canal until about 1830 when it gradually began to lose out to the newer and faster railroads.

Immigration from Ireland at the time of the great potato famine in 1830 to 1840 brought many Irish people. Many worked on the railroad building and they often settled along its route.

Germans came into New York mostly between 1800 and 1850, stopping for a while and then increasing again around 1890. Many of these moved right on through New York, settling in German communities around Cincinnati, Chicago, Louisville and Milwaukee. Theirs was a German way of life, language and all, until the first World War period when it became unpopular to be a German.

It is interesting to note that New York was, for the most part, settled by 1850. From this time on population in the state (excluding New York City) was a type of natural increase, with a farm to city direction after the Civil War.

"On this 29 day of November AD 1841 personally appeared before me Henry V.W. Masten one of the Justices of the Justices Court of the city of Troy (being a court of record) Elisha Eldridge as resident of Lansingburg, N.Y. aged 85 years, who being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Pension Act of Congress passed, July 7, 1822. That in 1774 I resided in the town of Branford, Ct. (Conn.) from which place I went to Groton, Mass. and enlisted as a Minute Man under Captain Duly in Colonel Ward's Regiment. As soon as the alarm of Lexington reached the town of Groton we immediately took the line of march and arrived at Lexington just as the British commenced the retreat to Boston. About this time my enlistment expired and I reenlisted in the same Company for three months. Went to Cambridge and at the battle of Bunker Hill our Regiment was situationed on Prospect Hill. On expiration of the three months service I reenlisted in Capt. Aaron Morse's Company of Minute Men and went to Roxbury where we built a fort and took up our winter quarters. Was here promoted to Orderly Sargeant.

At the evacuation of the city of Boston our company was on Dorchester Heights and received the broad side of the British ships as they passed out of the harbor several of our men being cut down. Soon after this engagement my enlistment expired and upon being discharged I went home to Branford. I again enlisted under Captain Sam Parker, Col. Russell's Regiment at Branford, Con. I served only a short part of this enlistment obtaining as a substitute Asha Bull, when I was discharged. (signed) Elisha Eldridge. Sworn and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

(signed) H.V. W. Masten, Justice of the Justices Court, City of Troy, N.Y.
Attested by William Hazen, Clerk of Court (Court Seal)
An affidavit of Alfred Seaman accompanying the claim says he was Captain of a Company of State Militia at Lansingburg, N.Y. in 1841 and buried the said Elisha Eldridge with "Military honors" as a Revolutionary Soldier.

There is also a copy of the marriage certificate of the said Elisha Eldridge and Mary Wheadon on file, said marriage having been performed by Rev. Philemon Robbins of the First Congregational Church of Branford, Conn. Feb. 27, 1777"

The Pension office also supplied a certified copy of the above information.

Dear Ms Shirley,
I have enclosed the obit for Elisha Eldridge from the Troy Daily Whig. It does say he was from CT but no town is given. There is no probate record for Elisha or his daughter Nancy in Rensselaer Co. Surrogate Court. I checked Index 1794-1873. There are no deeds for Elisha or Nancy in County Clerk's Office 1791-1895.
I discussed Elisha with Mrs. Broderick, Lansingburgh Historian, and have enclosed some material from Records of Catholic Hist. Society which she sent me. She said that there appear to be many errors in this document. Nancy is buried in the Lansingburgh Village Cem. not the Episcopal Burying Ground.
Mrs. Broderick wonders if you would send her a copy of Elisha's military record and the names of his other children for her Revolutionary Soldiers of Lansingburgh records. You can send them to Mrs. Frances Broderick, 695 4th Ave., Lansingburgh, NY 12182.
New York State Vital Records do not begin for the mostpart until 1880 so there would be no civil vital record for Elisha's death. Mrs. Broderick searched her Lansingburgh Church Records but found nothing for Elisha but some of the Presbyterian records are missing and he may have been a member of this church.
I worked 2 hours on this at $20.00 and am returning $30.00 to you. Good Luck in your search.

From Records of Catholic History Society

Article on Nancy - has this one paragraph which I forgot to xerox.

SOME NOTES ON MISS NANCY ELDRIDGE, OF LANSINGBURGH, N.Y.

GATHERED FROM FAMILY RECORDS.

Nancy Eldridge converted to the Catholic Church at the same time, it is said, as Keating Rawson, was the daughter of Elisha Eldridge, a Virginian by birth, and his wife Mary Wheaton, a New England woman, a native of New Haven, or Hartford, in Connecticut. The mother of Nancy, a handsome bright-eyed woman, died in Lansingburgh, N.Y. in 1841, at the age of 87 years.

The Eldridges were members of the Dutch Reformed Church-the Church of Holland.

Footnote: The writer of this paper on Miss Nancy Eldridge thinks it only right to observe that for the information contained therein he is indebtded to the kind industry of Miss Sara C. Tracy, of Lansingburgh, N.Y. who gathered the various data relating to the Eldridges from one of the family.

To continue-turn page.

Mrs. Brodericker - Lansingburg Historian - says many errors

See reverse"

Nancy Eldridge, who was born in Saratoga county, lived for awhile at Waterford, but later on, for the larger part of her life at Lansingburgh, where she kept a small school for little girls. She was a lady of excellent parts, of gracious and refined manners, highly respected by all, and of a very handsome bearing.

It is not known at what time, or place, Miss Eldridge was received into the Catholic Church. The same uncertainty as to the precise date of this event surrounds it as it does the reconciliation with the Church of Keating Rawson. But it is said, though on what grounds I have not been very satisfactorily informed, that Miss Eldridge owed her conversion largely to the influence of Mrs. John Tracy, daughter of Keating Rawson.

After her conversion her family, though remaining strong and firm in their Protestant convictions, nevertheless always respected the true and genuine spirit of Christianity in their kinswoman. For many years, in fact up to a short time before her death, Miss Eldridge had entire charge of the sacristy and altar of St. Augustine's church, then known as St. John the Baptist's.

In early life, she was engaged to a young man, a very worthy gentleman, but as strong a Presbyterian as she was a Catholic. Neither of them, despite their warm affection for one another, was willing to surrender the religious differences, that kept their promises unfulfilled. And yet with singular, and almost romantic, though not unheard-of, constancy to their early love, the two remained engaged for more than thirty years, when the death of the suitor parted them, visiting and receiving each the other's visits. Nancy Eldridge was never married.

During the last years of her life she met with many afflictions, which she bore uncomplainingly with true Christian fortitude. One Christmas Eve, during the rectorship of the late Rev. Dr. Moriarty, O.S.A., she fell on the icy side-walk opposite the old church of St. John's, this mishap resulting in a fracture of a hip. From this time down to the day of her death she was a continual sufferer, though never known to murmur. During her last illness, she was attended by Rev. Thomas Galberry, from whom she received all the consolations of Holy Church.

Nancy Eldridge died on Saturday, February 15, 1868, aged 74 years, a true and devoted Catholic, and in accordance with her dying request was buried in the Episcopal graveyard opposite the Catholic Church.

Note the record above says 74 years. Perhaps there is an obituary. Nancy was a daughter of Elisha Eldridge 1754-1841 and Mary Wheaton Eldridge 1756-1824. Elisha died in Lansingburgh and was in the Revolutionary War. ? Both parents are probably bur. in this same cem. but I did not find stones. Elisha died Dec. 1, 1841.

In this Village Wednesday, December 31, 1841 ELISHA ELDRIDGE - Mr. Elisha ELDRIDGE in the 87th Year of his age. The deceased was a native of Connecticut entering the service of his country while a youth of 18 - was one of the remnant of that heroic band who rushed to the aid of their country at that ever memorable period, the first sheding of blood at Lexington - he was, also, at the Battle of Bunker Hill - at Boston, and was in service most of the time during the War. He was truly a military man. That heroic spirit which must have nerved his arm on the battlefield in early manhood, was not extinct, but still lived in his heart, glowed in his visage, and gave antimation and life to his description, even at his advanced age. The writer of this has had frequent opportunities of listening to his descriptions of battles and blood shed, and intimated what he had become. The spirit of the patriot would bring back the scenes of other days so vividly that you would be almost ready to imagine you heard the cannon roar, and saw the dead and dying around you.

As a moral man the deceased was equally distinquished. Bred in a State noted for its morality, the good seed had taken early root, and we can truly say that in him piety, patriotism and morality was severally blended. For more than half a century he served under the banner of his Saviour and was a faithful soldier of the Cross of Christ. His piety shone always with an unchangeable lustre. His conversation proved to you that his thoughts were in Heaven. He has done with the world - had fought his country's battles and conquered - fought the great enemy Sin, and had conquered, and when death approached he had no fear; the majority of the Christian shown so beautiful in his death that even the infidel would have exclaimed, Behold how a Christian can die. But life's voyage, though protracted, is an at end, he has passed calmly over the dark waters, and is now among the redeemed in a haven of peace. LANSINGBURGH GAZETTE

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War record of Elisha Eldridge (Aldridge or Aldrich) who lived in Branford, Connecticut, and died in Lansingburg, New York.

The data given herein were found in pension claim, R. 3282, based upon service of Elisha Aldrige, or Eldridge, in that war.

Elisha Aldrige, or Eldridge, was born in Branford, New Haven County, Connecticut, where he resided at the time of the Revolutionary War. The date of his birth and the names of his parents are not shown.

November 29, 1841, he resided in Lansingburgh, Rensselaer County, New York, with his daughter Nancy Eldridge, a school teacher. He gave his age then as eighty-five years. He applied then for the pension which might have been due on account of his service in the Revolutionary War, and stated that he served as follows: enlisted in Groton, Massachusetts, in 1774, was a minute-man in Captain Luke Drury's company, Colonel Jonathan Ward's Massachusetts regiment, that he marched from Groton as soon as news of the Lexington Alarm reached there but reached that place after the British had left, that he enlisted and served nearly three months in that company and was stationed at Prospect Hill during the battle of Bunker Hill, that he served next as corporal in Captain Thomas Staples company of Artillery for a short time, that he served three months in Captain Aaron Morse's company, Colonel Joseph Read's Massachusetts regiment, and served six months as orderly sergeant in Captain Morse's company, that some time after the British left Boston, he returned to Branford, Connecticut, that he enlisted there in 1776, and served eighteen months in Captain Samuel Barker's company, Colonal Russell's Connecticut regiment, then hired a substitute for complete the three years for which he had enlisted.

New York

The claim for pension was not allowed as proof of service of six months was not furnished in accordance with the requirements of the pension law.

Elisha Eldrige, or Eldridge, died December 1, 1841 at the home of his daughter in Lansingburgh, New York. It was stated that his neighbors "honored him with a warrior's burial.".

He married February 27, 1777, in Branford, Connecticut, Mary Wheadon; the ceremony was performed by the First Congregational Minister of Branford; a copy of the record of this marriage shows Elisha's name "Elisha Aldrige".

In 1841, Nancy Eldridge stated that her father came to live with her in 1841, and that she had not lived at home since a child; she was the only surviving heir of the soldier. In 1852, she was living in Lansingburgh, and gave her age as thrity-nine years, but did not state the place of her birth. No reference was made to any other children.

Very truly yours,

Copied from my great grandfather's application for pension on account of his services as a soldier of the Revolution, which application is now on file in the United States Pension Office, Washington, D.C.

State of New York }
Rensselaer Co. } SS:

On this 29 day of November A.D. 1841 personally appeared before me, Henry W. Masten, one of the Justices of the Justices Court of the city of Troy (being a court of record), Elisha Eldridge a resident of Lansingburg N.Y. aged 85 years, who, being duly sworn according to law doth, on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Pension Act of Congress passed July 7, 1838. That in 1774 I resided in the town of Brainford Ct from which place I went to Groton, Mass and enlisted as a Minute Man under Captain Dudley in Colonel Ward's Regiment. As soon as the alarm of Lexington reached the town of Groton we immediately took up the line of march and arrived at Lexington just as the British commenced the retreat to Boston. About this time my enlistment expired and I re-enlisted in the same company for three months. Went to Cambridge and at the battle of Bunker Hill our Regiment was stationed on Prospect Hill. On expiration of three months service I re enlisted in Capt Aaron Morse's Company of Minute Men and went to Roxbury where we built a fort and took up our winter quarters. Was here promoted to Orderly Sargeant

At the evacuation of the city of Boston our company was on Dorchester Heights and received the broad side of the British ships as they passed out of the harbor, several of our men being cut down. Soon after this engagement my enlistment expired and upon being discharged I went home to Branford. I again enlisted under Capt Sam. Parker, Col. Russell's Regiment at Branford, Conn. I served only a short part of this enlistment, obtaining as a substitute, Asha Bull, when I was discharged. (Signed) Elisha Eldridge

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

(Signed) H. W. Masten, Justice of the Justices Court, City of Troy, N.Y.

Attested by Wm. Hagen, Clerk of Court. (Court Seal.)

An affidavit of Alfred Seaman accompanying the claim says he was Capt of a Company of State Militia at Lansingburg, N.Y. in 1841 and buried the said Elisha Eldridge with "Military honors as a Revolutionary Soldier."

There is also a copy of the marriage certificate of the said Elisha Eldridge and Mary Wheadon on file, said marriage having been performed by Rev. Philemon Robbins of the First Congregational Church of Branford, Conn. Feb 27, 1777.

ANCESTOR'S SERVICES

My ancestor's services in assisting in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution were as follows: Copied from my great grandfather's application for pension on account of services as a soldier of the Revolution, which application is now on file in the U.S. Pension office, Wash. D.C. 'State of New York, Rensselaer Co. S.S. -On this 29th day of Nov. A.D. 1841 personally appeared before me Henery V.W. Masten, one of the Justices of Justice Court of the city of Troy (being a court of record) Elisha Eldridge a resident of Lansingburg, N.Y. aged 85 years, who being duly sworn according to law doth, on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Pension Act of Congress passed July 7, 1832. That in 1774 I resided in the town of Branford, Conn. from which place I went to Groton, Mass. and enlisted as a Minute Man under Capt. Duly in Colonel Ward's regiment. As soon as the Alarm of Lexington reached the town of Groton we immediately took up the line of march and arrived at Lexington just as the British Commenced the retreat to Boston. About this time my enlistment expired and I re-enlisted in the same company for three months. Went to Cambridge and at the battle of Bunker Hill our regiment was stationed on Prospect Hill. On expiration of three months service, I re-enlisted in Capt. Aaron Morse's Company of Minute Men and went to Roxbury where we built a fort and took up winter quarters. Was here promoted to Orderly Sergeant. At the evacuation of the city of Boston our company was on Dorchester Heights and received the broadsides of the British ships as they passed out of the harbor, several men being cut down. Soon after this engagement my enlistment expired and upon being discharged I went home to Branford. I again enlisted under Capt. Sam Barker, Col. Russell's Regiment at Branford, Conn. I served only a short part of this enlistment, obtaining as a substitute Asha Bull, when I was discharged. (Signed) Elisha Eldridge, Sworn to and subscribed this day and year aforesaid Signed--H.V.W. Dear Mrs. Shirley:

A research survey has been made on your pedigree lines as requested. We checked the Temple Records Index Bureau and Family Group Records Archives to determine if other persons have submitted information on your lines. The enclosed copies of index cards and family group records were available at the time of checking.

We do not have addresses for the "heir," "proxy" or "family representative" on index cards. The archive record contains the name and address of the person who submitted it. These records represent no actual research on our part and we suggest that you verify the information from other sources.

The 1850 census index of Ohio shows an Eldridge Haynes in Lorain County, Rochester Township on page 606. The 1790 census of Connecticut shows on Elisha Eldridge (on p. 147) in Mansfield and the 1790 census of New York shows an Elisha Eldred in Minisink, Orange County, New York. The 1800 census shows an Elisha Eldridge in Cayuga County p. 706 (11101-32110) and another in Otsego County p. 9 (12001-20010).

We find your Jenison family in Charlton, Massachusetts vital records with a Peter Jr. having children in the 1790s but Chloe was not mentioned. A Mary Eldridge is shown in Northeasttown of Dutchess County.

See the extract copy of the vital records of Branford on your Wheadon family.

To continue your research, we suggest you go to your local library and get volume 2 and 49 of Reder's Genealogical and Biographical Index of the 2nd series to study your Eldridge family. You must locate your family from census indexes and land indexes and then study the records of the locality.

A copy of your letter has been given to our Research Department and they will correspond with you concerning genealogical collections.

We hope this survey will open up many leads to extending your genealogy.

You may order and use copies of most microfilms in our collection at the Indianapolis Indiana Branch Genealogical Library:

RELATIONSHIPS SHOWN IN TAX LISTS FOR NORTH, MIDDLE AND SOUTH WARDS AND FOR BEEKMAN AND PAWLING PRECINCTS.

by

Clifford M. Buck

The tax lists in Dutchess County run from 1717/18 to 1778. eneral they show only the existence of a person and the dates were here. The County was divided into North, Middle and Wards from 1717/18 to 1737/38. Beekman Precinct was from /39 to 1778 and Pawling which included Dover was taken off Beekman 1769.

In a number of cases a name is identified by telling who he is son of. In a number of cases a name changes to a different name. This indicates a probable father son relationship there is no certainity or proof that this is the case. Where occur I have indicated by the words "change to"

The following letters are used to indicate where they are

B BEEKMAN

Dear Marian,

The phone calls have added up. Mr. Doherty works his computor while I wait. Last call he told me to phone back in a week for he had thought he found in "HENRY BEEKMAN RENT BOOK (OWNER) RENT BK. E. 1786-1803 an CLARK ELDREDGE. SO TONIGHT I PHONED AND WHEN I READ OFF WHAT HE HAD ME JOT DOWN HE JUST COULDN'T FIND THE REFS. ON HIS COMPUTOR.

WHEN I SAID I REALLY COPIED OFF JUST WHAT HE HAD READ TO ME FROM HIS COMPUTOR HE KEPT TRYING AND NOTHING CAME UP.

THEN I SAID "COULD IT BE YOU ARE NOT CHECKING THE HENRY BEEKMAN RENT BOOKS- "Oh, your right I mixed up the computor. " Then he said oh here is rent bk. e. 1786- 1803 and I said check pg. 46. He did and found:
Pg. 46 and 93 MARY ELDRIDGE PGS. 46 and 93 with ELISHA AND ANOTHER MARY ON PG. 93.

Then he checked Page 41 and there was CLARK ELDREDGE and 46
A CASEY AND ELISHA 91 and 93 and 46

SO LOOKS GOOD DON'T YOU THINK!

In another week I am to call back and he will try and elaborate on the above!

Then Sept. 1774 JOHN HULSIE lease to ELISHA ELDRIDGE AND WM. CLARK PART OF FARM Pg. 104 Casey and Pg. 66 Elisha and Wm. Clark, etc.

NOTE: ON THE RESEARCH YOU HAVE DONE AND I HAVE DONE AT DAR AND THROUGH FRANK J. DOHERTY DOES APPEAR AS IF OURELISHA AND MARY WHEADON ELDRIDGE WITH SON CLARK 31 July 1784 DUTCHESS CO. N. Y. is correct! WHAT DO YOU THINK?????

I will give him the one more call in a week after JULY 4th and see what else he has found??????

RESEARCH THIS REPORT: (I did some more checking at NSDAR but nothing new YOUR CLARK COULD HAVE BEEN AROUND 20 yrs. in 1803!

$46.50 thanks (this includes the phone calls mainly plus my continued research at DAR Lib.

So, Marian I will make the one more phone call Mr. D. thought he might come up with something special??? Then it is up to you to decide whether we should stop. Ofcourse, depends on what Mr. D. finds now???

Cordially -
Betty B. H.

P.S. Did you see N.Y. Gens. finds anything on Daniel & Rd. Cleveland in Col. Co. "Clark Eldredge"??

Monday I will go back DAR Lib + check on this date!

Dear Marian, what I have to DAR after talking with Frank D.!! + discussed

Just nothing at DAR or Nat. Archives on the JONATHAN ELDRIDGE and ELISHA ELDRIDGE Settlers of the BEEKMAN PATENT Dutchess Co. N. Y.

See Dutchess Co. section

I. I JUST DECIDED TO PHONE FRANK J. DOHERTY OF PLEASANT VALLY N. Y. and he is right now working on Store book for Dutchess County.

A. In DUNKIN STORE DOVER, NEW YORK he found Elisha (Beekman) 1790-91 AMOS ELDRIDGE ELISHA AND ELISHA'S SON: JOHN ELDERIDGE CASEY ELDERIDGE ALSO SORRY BEGINNING WITH AMOS found in yrs. 1791-93.

NOTE: HE SAID TO SEE PGS. 539 in his book for Amos, John son of Elisha etc. Sure he means in the book you have SETTLERS OF THE BEEKMAN PATENT.

B. NOTE DOVER N. Y. IS NEAR POUGHKEEPSIE.

C. BY 1795 NO ELDRIDGE IN R LATIONSHIP TO YOUR LINES.

NOTE: HE ASKED IF I HAD HIS BOOK AND I SAID A FRIEND OF MINE(YOU DID) HOPE I'M TELLING THE TRUTH BUT IF YOU DO NOT OWN ATLEAST YOU HAVE READ SAME!

D. HE WILL PHONE ME SOON .

E. HE MENTIONED 1810 census n. e. Millerton/? has Elisha so I will check this out at archives for you

F. Also something about Front Cover of his book in N. E. Millerton Millerton ELISHA WAS BET. MOSS FRAZIER AND HENRY HOPKIN? ON CENSUS.

So apparently they lived mainly in Dover and N. E. Millerton, N. Y. Dut. County

FUNNY THING WAS I DID NOT LET ON I WAS A PROFESSIONAL BECAUSE OFTEN THEY CHARGE MORE. NOT REALLY SNEAKY BUT NO NEED TELLING HIM THIS. HE WAS VERY NICE . AND SAID HE HAD MUCH ON "HUSTEADS". I thanked him but I know my husband's line went from Conn. to Pough. across to Uniontown, Pa.

I told Mr. Doherty that my mother graduated from Vassar College and we use to drive her to Reunions. Then he mentioned that he studies in their Library and it is open until midnight!

Marian if my letter is choppy it is because difficult to get all over the phone but didn't want to miss the opportunity to talk personally with him!

He did say it definitely gave JOHN ELDRIDGE AS SON OF ELISHA 1791-93 Dover Plain

Also he found a CASEY ELDRIDGE . Seems as if the STORE OWNER KEPT DAILY RECORDS SO THAT IS WHY THE NEXT BOOK WILL BE ON THAT. HE WENT UP TO HIS STUDY AND ON MICROFILM GAVE ME MUCH OF THE ABOVE DATA!

ONE ITEM IS NOT CLEAR TO ME: "NO ELDRIDGE ON THIS LINE IN 1795 BUT THEN 1810 census found Elisha etc.

Mr. Doherty mentioned
a Town ??Tocell?
N.E.
near Dover Plains
I have Atlas & cannot find it.

Dear Marian,

Have been having an interesting study on the recent ELISHA AND JONATHAN ELDRIDGE. I DID MUCH RESEARCH AT DAR LIBRARY BUT FIRST OF ALL I DECIDED TO PHONE THE AUTHOR OF THE BOOK : FRANK J. DOHERTY . SEE THE LETTER I BEGAN TO YOU ON MAY 18th.

I. NSDAR LIB. SEE ENCLOSED BOOKS "DUTCHESS"
I WENT THRU this series plus other vols. on Dutchess Co. N. Y.
Enclosed what I found. On one map 1775 you can see DOVER IS PART OF PAWLING

A. ON page 7 see relationship shown in tax lists for north, middle and south wards and for beekman and pawling precincts by buck.

Page 8 under PAWLING ELDRIDGE, ELISHA changed to JAMES WHICH MEANS JAMES COULD HAVE BEEN ONE OF HIS SONS. SO NOW WE HAVE JOHN AND JAMES.

B. Did I mentioned some place in this episal that Mr. Doherty is going to phone me back soon abt. something more he might discover.

While I was in the Dutchess Co. Court House, I asked for a copy of

"Wills on File in Court of Appeals Chambers/Eagle Street, Albany, NY" and I have looked through this for relevant names: no Clark, Eldredge, Haines, Baldwin.

As you must know, wills dating from early days to the Revolution are a difficult problem; they are, at best, scattered.

Queens Collge has a collection of the old libers which they claim they saved from destruction; I went out to see them once; you had to make an appointment with the custodian-professor. I have since heard, via the grapevine, that the State had taken some of this collection away from the College; I also heard some were in the Appellate Court in NYC.

Then I heard that Albany had done nothing with what they have; they had not had the time/staff to index, etc. It's all a mess. The one bright spot is the large number of early NY Wills which were published in many volumes by the NY Histl. Soc., and these are often available in libraries across the country; the Newberry, for one, would probably have them.

After the Revolution, the wills are stored in each County, at the seat.

This list shows a date as late as 1794, but nothing dated 1800 or later.

The Axford House

Enlarged by the Axford family circa 1850
Now owned by Mr. and Mrs. John P. Rayner

DIRECTIONS: The house stands on the north side of Milltown Road. It is 1.1 miles east of the Milltown Road/Federal Hill junction.

The house is built on land which Anthony Gage occupied before 1767 when he was recorded as a tenant-farmer on a map drawn for the landowner, Admiral George Clinton. Anthony Gage was able to purchase the property in 1788 when the estate of Henry Clinton was forfeited. The center section, now the dining room, dates from this time.

In 1867 the house belonged to D. Ganung, a member of a Hugenot family which had been in this country since 1686.

The house was considerably enlarged by the Axford family, during the nineteenth century, when they built the three-storied western end of the house.

House Interpreter: Kathleen Sambora

The Haines House

Built in about 1762
Now owned by Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Harnes

DIRECTIONS: The house stands on the south side of Federal Hill Road. It is 0.2 miles north of the Federal Hill/Milltown Road junction.

The oldest part of this elegant house dates from 1762 and stands on the very edge of the Oblong on land which was then farmed by E. Rockwall. It was enlarged in the early 1800s and is shown in Beer's Atlas of 1867 as being the property of E. Haines. Later, it became the home of State Senator Fitzgerald. Subsequent owners have included a number of successful attorneys. An early nineteenth century barn stands beside the house and the foundations of an old mill can be seen from the windows of the house.

House Interpreter: Suzanne Truran

The Barnum House

The Barnum House

Built around 1759 by Abijah Orpha Barnum
Now the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Hambrecht

DIRECTIONS: The house is on the south side of Milltown Road and on the corner with King Street. It is 2.3 miles east of the Milltown Road/Federal Hill junction.

The Barnum house was built in about 1759 by Abijah Orpha Barnum and is recorded, in 1794, as being a toll house. It remained in the same family until 1945.

The Barnum family came to America in the middle of the 17th century and were one of the first families to settle in the Oblong.

The house is of post-and-beam construction and is built mainly from chestnut with wide oak floor boards. The sturdy construction and central chimney with fireplaces, bread-oven, and "parson's cupboard" are typical of the time. Some of the floor boards are over 16 inches wide and were "illegal" as boards of 12 inches or more were reserved for building the King's ships. The "funeral door" of the parlor is the only one fitted with a knob: the others have latches. A fine barn, with original beams, adjoins the house.

Uninterupted occupation by the same family for two hundred years has contributed to the preservation of the house in its original form.

House Interpreters: Mr. and Mrs. Velardi

The Sherwood House

Built by the Sherwood family in 1803
Now owned by Mr. and Mrs. P. Andrews

DIRECTIONS: The house stands on the north side of Sherwood Hill Road near the corner of Milltown Road. It is 2.5 miles north of the Milltown Road/-Federal Hill junction.

The Sherwoods were farmers of English descent. The house was built in 1803 and remained in the family until the 1890s when it was purchased by Matilda Quigley. The Quigleys farmed the land until 1923 when they sold the farm to the Rahisons and it remained in their hands until the house was bought by the present owners after the death of Mrs. Rahison.

The house is a fine example of early 19th century domestic architecture with intricate moldings and detailing. It is mostly unaltered, with the exception of the re-modelled kitchen (which occupies the old east porch) into which old beams, from a North Salem barn, have been incorporated. The attic houses a built-in loom: some of its spindles are displayed in the new kitchen.

Colonel Ludington's men passed the house on their way to relieve Danbury. The ghost of a naval officer has sometimes been seen near the original back door.

House Interpreter: Joan Bradley

The Sherwood House

The Gage House

The Gage House

Built by the Gage family in about 1719
Now owned by Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Kennedy

DIRECTIONS: The house stands on the north side of Milltown Road. It is 1.3 miles east of the Milltown Road/Federal Hill junction.

The Gages were also among the families mentioned in the earliest records of the Oblong. They came from Cape Cod and the map prepared for Admiral George Clinton in 1767 shows Elihu, Moses, Thomas, Ebenezer and Anthony Gage as tenant-farmers.

The saltbox farmhouse is probably the oldest building in the area and is believed to date from 1719. It is situated on land farmed by Elihu Gage (1716-1802). He eventually bought the farm of 124 acres in the 1788 Sale by Attainder of Henry Clinton's estate.

The Old Milltown Cemetery behind the house can be visited. It contains the graves of many of Elihu's descendents, although he and his wife, Grace, were buried in the Sears' Burying Ground at Doanesburg (on Route 22). The Milltown Cemetery was used from about 1806 until 1879 (when the Milltown Rural Cemetery was incorporated on land acquired to the west of the old one) and is the last resting place of many of the 19th century residents of the area.

House Interpreter: Patricia Baker

Map prepared for Admiral George Clinton by Will Cockburn in 1767. It shows the farms of his tenants.

Follow Main Street (Rte. 6) east through Brewster traffic lights. Left (east) on to Rte. 22/Rte. 6 to junction with Rte. 22 (north). North for 3 miles on Rte. 22 to traffic lights at junction with Milltown Road (Rte. 54). Turn right on to Milltown Road. After 1 mile, cross Croton River to Milltown Road/Federal Hill junction.

The Oblong

For two hundred years, there was dissension over the Connecticut-New York border. The inadequate maps of 1664 had resulted in a boundary which gave a portion of the west bank of the Hudson (south of West Point) to Connecticut, and the shoreline of present-day Fairfield County to New York. It was proposed that Connecticut should regain the 61,440-acre coastal area but would cede land of equal acreage on its western borders: a 1.8-mile wide tract called The Oblong. The Equivalent Lands were surveyed and delineated in 1731 but it was 1879 before Connecticut accepted the new state line.

The earliest settlers were a hardy and individual group of tenant farmers. These people were practical and efficient and the houses which they built were simple but sturdy. The architecture is largely without decoration but the solid construction, from local materials, has stood the test of time.

Some of the settlers came from Massachusetts in search of greater religious freedom; others were attracted by the fertile land of the Oblong. Many of the early landowners were royalists, including Henry Clinton the owner of 2000 acres in the Milltown area. After the Revolution, their lands were seized and sold by the Commissioners of Forfeitures and many tenants bought their farms.

The names of the first families to settle on the Oblong in the vicinity of Milltown included: Barnum, Benedict, Birdsall, Comstock, Crane, Crosby, Field, Gage, Hall, Higgins, Hopkins, Haviland, Kent, Nickerson, Ryder, Sears, Sherwood and Starr.

Other inhabitants were outlaws who found the no-man's-land status of the Oblong conducive to their trade. In 1781, Waite Vaughan's band of brigands who had terrorized the neighborhood, attacked and killed Mason Pierce in his Quaker Hill home. Captain William Pierce, the brother of the murdered man, and his soldiers raided Vaughan's encampment and shot him during the ensuing skirmish.

Dear Marian -

Your recent communications have been studied by now, and of all the data what really seems exciting is a line from the biography of Nancy Eldridge, "The Eldridges were members of the Dutch Reformed Church...."

This ties in to satisfactorily with the entries for Eldritch/etc. in the DRC records which you sent to me. I feel strongly that more of these should be studied; there are many at the NYG&B, and at the CSL, although the latter's do not have the indices which are available and which are in some of the NYG&B volumes. However, since we have definite years of birth/baptisms for Elisha's children, it would not be too difficult to go through these volumes (Vosburgh Coll.) and look under relevant years; I will do that the next time I go the the CSL. Next week I am due for carpenter and mason to install greatly needed outdoor steps up an embankment, and I await their timing -- you know how it is!

Your husband was right on GSA.

Considering the obvious errors in Nancy's bio - mother died in 1841, etc. - I think the statement that her father was a Virginia by birth may also be an error. I question that, but of course it cannot be ruled out altogether until disproved.

Working on Putnam/Dutchess Co. sources for another client, I found, in Barbara D. Buys book on Purnam Co. ts inscriptions: buried in Philisptown , p.91

> Edward Eldridge, d. Apri.10,1837 a 83-9-13; Hannah w Edward, d. Apr. 17,1837 in 25th yr.

Edward b. ca 1754. I do not find him in either of the genealogies we have, but he was contemporary with Elisha.

Stephen Eldridge married 10 June 1804 Elizabeth Chapman,in Ashford,CT (AVR 4:62). This fits with the baptisms in NYS.

I tried for Jonathan; the only one I found as a possibility/who was born 1752, enlisted in 1775 in 6th CT regt (DAR 119:231). I am certain I had data from the DAR and can't find the paper; will get for you;sorry.

From "Some Early Records of the Lutheran Church, New York/
"Marriage Record of Rev. Justus Falckner.."
(Year Book of the Holland Society of New York, 1903,p.18)

Elisabeth Elderage y.d. (young maiden) married 1738 Henrich Beekman.

This is an old note I came across;don't have the date beyond the year-don't know how I happened to include this item; it marries an Elderidge to an old NY family. Might find something on them which wouldbe useful.

When I was last at CSL I had the usual pressure re the microfilm readers; an inexcusable number in various stages of disrepair; everybody who wants one signs up and hopes it will hold together. I went on a Monday, too;Saturday is impossible. Will try next time. (Woodstock Ct or NY?)

Thank you for the data on the census reports on Elisha's children. Certainly a potpourri of birthplaces.

Deeds in Dutchess Co. should be searched; I am considering going there as I have another client for whom work indicates important to find records there ; I would divide the costs of milage and parking (the only charges) between you. I'd like you to authorize this;thank you.

I have another client with a Rev.War record for an ancestor which has puzzled her; she wonders why an ancestor who is reportedly born in Branford/ New Haven,CT should have gone to Durham,CT to enlist and at one point went "from Boston to Dorchester." May I please have your permission to quote from the pension application of your Elisha, which shows both places mentioned together. I'm sure she would be interested;again,thank you.

Thanks for keeping me posted on developments at your end!

More anon.

Sincerely,
Judith

The BEEKMAN REGIMENT of Minute Men was the 3rd Company and was commissioned 1 March 1776. The following illustrates the urgency of the times: "New York, 23 Feb. 1776. To the Honorable Provincial Congress of New York: Gentlemen: The Minute Company from Beekman's Precinct in Dutchess County being lately raised & so soon ordered on duty that the Committee had not opportunity before they left home to attend the Election of their officers-- but we have this day call'd the Company to a choice-- when the following Gentlemen were unanimously Chosen officers of said Company, and we request they be commissioned:"

William Clarke, Captain.
Benjamin Noxon, 1st Lieut.
Martin Cornell, 2nd. Lieut.
Nathaniel Cary, Ensign.

James Vanderburgh & Ebenezer Cary, Committee.
[CNYHM i:250].

Captain William Clark presented his Muster Roll and the Pay and Billeting or Subsistence Roll for his Company of Rangers to the Committee of Safety on 1 Nov. 1776. Gerard Bancker, Deputy Treasurer had certified that Captain Clark's Company was due £921/14/5 3/4 for service from the 26th July to 31st Oct. 1776, inclusive. [AA 5th Series 281]. This Minute Company was not among those at Kings Bridge in late 1776 under Col. Jacobus Swartwout, but was active in scouting for Tories.

VAN WYCK'S COMPANY

Cornelius Van Wyck was elected a Captain in William Humphrey's 5th (Beekman) Regiment of the Dutchess County Militia. He was born ca. 1740 and married 14 July 1764,

Dear Sir:

I advise you from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, S.39487, it appears that Jonathan Eldredge or Eldridge enlisted, place not stated, in April, 1775, and served seven months as a sergeant in Captain Abel Spicer's Company in Colonel Parsons' Connecticut Regiment.

He enlisted in 1776, and served one year as sergeant in Captain Isaac Gallup's Company in Colonels Parsons' and John Tyler's Connecticut Regiment.

He was allowed pension on his application executed April 2, 1818, at which time he was aged sixty-six years and resided in Bridgeport, Addison County, Vermont.

In 1820, he stated that his wife, her name not given, was aged sixty-six years; their daughter, Nancy was aged twenty-six and a son was also referred to, his name and age not given.

ELDREDGE GENEALOGY.

By Zoeth S. Eldredge, Esq., of San Francisco, Cal.

The name of Eldredge, or as it was originally written, Eldred, is Saxon. Eldred was the name of several kings of the Saxons in the eighth and ninth centuries. Eldred was King of Chester, A.D., 951. An Eldred was Saxon Archbishop of York (and Canterbury) in 1066 and according to the historian Thiery cursed William the Conqueror. The Eldreds were holders of lands in Wilts, Dorset, Somerset, Devon, Gloucester, Shropshire, Yorkshire and other counties at the time of the Domesday survey (A.D. 1085) and prior thereto, in the time of Edward the Confessor.

John Eldred, of Great Saxham, in Suffolk, descended from an ancient family claiming Saxon origin. Tradition says that he purchased the Great Saxham estates because of his belief that his ancestors, in remote ages, as Saxon kings, had held the Saxhams as their great Saxon home.

He was born in 1552 and died in 1632. He was a great traveler and his ships and merchandise went to all parts of the world. He was one of the founders of Virginia and from 1609 to 1624 was a member of His Majesty's Council for the Virginia Company of London. The brass to "John Eldred the Navigator," at Great Saxham, has the arms of the East India Merchants, the Levant or Turkey Merchants and the Russia Merchants Companies. He left four sons and two daughters. Thomas Lee, of Coton, in Shropshire (the seat of Launcelot Lee, Esq.) married Dorothy, granddaughter of John Eldred.

The Pilgrims who came to America in the Mayflower, in 1620, obtained a patent from the London Company and though contrary winds carried them northward to Cape Cod, they had intended to plant their Colony in "Virginia," near the mouth of the Hudson River.

As John Eldred of Great Saxham was at that time and for fifteen years, a director of the Virginia Company of London, it is possible that the Eldreds who appeared in New England between the years 1635 and 1645, viz: William, Robert, Samuel, John and Nathaniel, were in some way connected with his family.

1. William Eldred of Yarmouth.

William Eldred is known to have been a resident of Yarmouth from March 3, 1645, to 1667. It is thought that William of Yarmouth, Robert of Yarmouth and Monomoy and Samuel of Cambridge and Stonington, were brothers, and that they came from England about 1635. They all appear to have been men of standing and substance. William was appointed constable in Yarmouth in 1657, 1662, 1674, 1675 and 1677. He was also surveyor of highways. He married Anne, daughter of William and Tamesin Lumpkin, of Yarmouth. Lumpkin came over in 1637. He was a deputy to the Colony Court and held many of the local offices.

As the Yarmouth records were destroyed by fire in 1674, my account of William and his children is brief. Anne, his wife, was buried Nov. 1, 1676. The known children of William were:

i. Anne,[2] b. in Yarmouth, Dec. 16, 1648.
ii. Sarah, b. in Yarmouth, Oct. 10, 1650.
2. iii. Elisha, b. 1653.
iv. Bethia.

In addition to these, the following are believed to have been his children:

v. Jehosaphat, d. 1732. His wife was Elizabeth. Children: Edward, b. in Chatham, July 17, 1702 (m. Mary ——, and d. 1730, leaving two children, Mary and Anne), Nathaniel, Elisha, Elnathan, Ebenezer, Barnabas and Elizabeth.
vi. Samuel, m. Keziah Taylor. Eight children.
vii. John.

2. Elisha[2] Eldred (William[1]), born in 1653, died in Eastham (Wellfleet) Oct. 14, 1739, and is buried in the old graveyard at the head of Duck Creek, where a stone marks the spot. His name on the gravestone is spelled Eldredg. William Lumpkin, the father-in-law of William Eldred, in his will dated 23 July, 1668, names wife Tamesin; daughter Tamesin, wife of John Sunderling; and grandchildren William Gray, Elisha Eldred and Bethia Eldred. In 1693 Elisha Eldredg was in Harwich where he, with Joseph Severance and Manoah Ellis, bought a tract of land of Joseph Crook, an Indian. He resided in the south part of the town in what is sometimes denominated the Doane neighborhood. He afterwards sold his interest in the above land to Isaac Atkins and removed to that part of Eastham which subsequently became the town of Wellfleet. It is not known who his wife was. His son Elisha Eldredge, Jr., was active in church work and was opposed to the preaching of Mr. Oakes.

3. Elisha[3] Eldredge (Elisha,[2] William[1]), born about 1690, died in Mansfield, Ct., Nov. 9, 1754, married Dorcas, daughter of Thomas Mulford, of Truro. She was born in Eastham, March 6, 1692-3, and died in Mansfield, Ct., about 1755. Her mother was Mary, daughter of Nathaniel Basset and granddaughter of William Basset who came in the ship "Fortune" in 1621. Elisha was probably married in Truro and his son Mulford was born there, but by 1715 he was living again in Eastham, and about 1741 he removed to Mansfield, Ct. Owing to the church troubles at Billingsgate (Eastham), he had himself and children baptized in Truro, in 1727, where he is on the church records as "Elisha Eldredge Jr. of Eastham." He and his wife Dorcas were admitted to the church at South Mansfield, by letter, June 21, 1741. In his will, dated Dec. 12, 1751, and proved Nov. 23, 1754, he provides for the four sons and five daughters named below and signs his name Elisha Eldredge. This spelling of the name has been adhered to by most of his descendants. His wife Dorcas, who is named in the will, was dead in 1756 when the estate was distributed.

4. JESSE[4] ELDREDGE (Elisha,[3] Elisha,[2] William[1]), born in Eastham, Aug. 9, 1715; died in Willington, Ct., Dec. 17, 1794; married in Eastham, Nov. 7, 1734, Abigail, daughter of Samuel and Abigail (Freeman) Smith. She was born in Eastham, Dec. 17, 1718, and died in Willington, March 16, 1793. She was a descendant of Elder William Brewster, Stephen Hopkins, Gov. Thomas Prence, Edmund Freeman, Rev. John Lothrop, Ralph Smyth, Henry Howland and Thomas Clark. Jesse Eldredge preceded his father to Mansfield and later removed to Willington, an adjoining town. As the Mansfield and Willington records are very defective, I cannot give the dates of birth of all his children. The children were as follows:

i. ABIGAIL,[5] b. in Mansfield, Oct. 27, 1735.

ii. DORCAS, b. in Mansfield, April 30, 1738.

iii. MARY, b. in Mansfield, June 6, 1740.

iv. JESSE, bap. in Mansfield, April 25, 1742; d. in Willington, May 9, 1788; m. March 19, 1767, Mary Pierce, of Mansfield. He was a farmer and a soldier of the Revolution. Their children were:
1. Jesse,[6] b. Jan. 11, 1768; m. 1st, Polly Bicknell, 2d, Nabby Williams. He removed to Chenango Co., N. Y. Ten children.
2. David, b. Sept. 28, 1773. He was a surveyor and was sent from Connecticut to survey the Western Reserve. He was drowned in what was then called the Grand River, June 13, 1797, and buried where the city of Cleveland now stands.
3. Enoch, b. May 2, 1775; d. October, 1861; m. Anna Pierce and went to Chenango Co., N. Y. and from thence to Wisconsin. He was also a surveyor and was with his brother David when the latter was drowned. Eight children.
4. Elijah, b. Oct. 14, 1778; m. 1st, Dec. 31, 1806, Clarissa Crane, of Mansfield; 2d, June 21, 1810, Sally Hunt, of Columbia. Children: 1. Clarissa,[7] b. Feb. 24, 1808; m. Thomas Russ. 2. Farnham; resides in Willington, Ct. 10. Daniel, b. May 14, 1824; m. Catherine Holt; resides in Willington, Ct.
5. Mary, b. April 5, 1781; m. Jason Barrows.

v. EBENEZER, bap. in Mansfield, June 10, 1744; d. in infancy.

vi. MARTHA, m. Ebenezer Smith.

vii. EBENEZER.

viii. SAMUEL, d. Jan. 20, 1782; m. Hannah Fuller and had Elisha,[6] Samuel and Hannah. He was a soldier of the Revolution and served as private in 6th Company (Capt. Jonathan Parker), 3d Battalion Wadworth's Brigade.

5. ix. ZOETH, b. about 1751; d. March 18, 1828.

x. JEMIMA, b. in Willington, March 28, 1755; m. Philemon Holt.

xi. JOSEPH, b. in Willington, Feb. 28, 1759; m. Rhoda Goodale, and had Rhoda,[6] Elesalect, Rhoda, Abigail, Colista, Chester and Freeman. He was also a private in Captain Parker's Company.

xii. ANNA, b. in Willington, Feb. 28, 1759; m. Stephen Farnam.

5. ZOETH[5] ELDREDGE (Jesse,[4] Elisha,[3] Elisha,[2] William[1]), born, it is supposed, in Willington, Ct., about 1751; died in Willington, March 18, 1828. He married first, in Willington, Aug. 6, 1771, Elizabeth, daughter of Timothy and Dinah Pearl. She was born in Willington, Jan. 15, 1756; died Jan. 8, 1779. He married second, in Willington, Oct. 16, 1779, Bethia, daughter of Capt. Ichabod Hinckley, of Tolland. She was born in Tolland, Dec. 10, 1759, and died in Willington, June 17, 1850. She was a descendant of Samuel Hinckley, Rev. John Lothrop, Roger Goodspeed, Dolar Davis and Robert Lynnell. Her father, Captain Hinckley, was adjutant of the company of Minute-Men in the Lexington alarm and afterwards a lieutenant and captain in the Continental army.

Zoeth Eldredge was a farmer and a soldier of the Revolution. The Minute-Men who sprang to arms at the sound of the Lexington alarm were regularly organized and equipped militia, enrolled by authority of the Assembly or Provincial Congress and were subject to the call of the Committee of Safety. Citizens of every calling appeared in the ranks of these "alarm companies." To be a private in them was proclaimed to be an honor; to be chosen to office in them, a mark of the highest distinction.*

In company with the other Connecticut towns, Willington responded quickly to the call of April 19, 1775, and almost before the British troops had accomplished their retreat from Lexington a gallant little band of farmer soldiers were on the road to Boston. The company was under the command of Maj. Elijah Fenton and Zoeth Eldredge marched—a private—in the ranks. The service of the Minute-Men was brief and upon their dismissal Zoeth Eldredge enlisted in the Second Connecticut Regiment, Col. Joseph Spencer, serving as a private in the Fifth Company under Capt. Solomon Willes from about May 1st until the regiment was dismissed in the latter part of December, 1775. This regiment was at Roxbury and served during the siege of Boston; detachments of officers and men engaged at the battle of Bunker Hill and in Arnold's Quebec expedition, September–December, 1775. He also saw three months' service under Washington in New York City. There he was taken sick with camp fever and was sent with several of his comrades to the hospital at Stamford, Ct., just before the retreat from the city began. His regiment was the Twenty-second Connecticut militia, Col. Samuel Chapman, and his company commander was Capt. Joseph Parsons.

Children, born in Willington. By first wife, Elizabeth Pearl:

i. ZOETH,[6] b. Jan. 29, 1772; d. Sept. 6, 1780.

MARRIAGES IN NANTUCKET. 1717–1777.

Communicated by OTIS G. HAMMOND, Esq., of Concord, N. H.

I SEND herewith, for publication in the REGISTER, a copy of some ancient marriage records of Nantucket, Mass., which I have taken from an old account book now in possession of the New Hampshire Historical Society. This book was presented to the society by Rev. Howard F. Hill, of Concord, N. H., June 14, 1871. It was kept by George and Caleb Bunker, of Nantucket, during the greater part of the 18th century, and is filled principally with ordinary merchants' accounts of no particular value. But the two Bunkers were also justices of the peace and recorded the marriages performed by them in the same book with their accounts.

George Bunker's entries begin March 5, 1717, and continue until Nov. 22, 1741, a period of twenty-four years and a little more than eight months, during which time he performed and recorded sixty-four marriages. From the last date until Jan. 2, 1765, there are no records. Then Caleb Bunker's entries begin and continue until June 8, 1777, a period of twelve years and five months, during which time fifty marriages are recorded. So that the whole time actually covered by these records is thirty-seven years, and the total number of marriage records found is one hundred and fourteen.

The book also contains judicial proceedings before George Bunker, as justice of the peace, from Aug. 7, 1718, to April 7, 1726, and before Caleb Bunker from Oct. 13, 1763, to Jan. 18, 1775. These records consist principally of trials for petty misdemeanors and the administering of oaths of office to town officers of Nantucket.

I send you these records for publication, as I know they must be of great value to the people of Nantucket and to all who trace their genealogy back to that ancient and honorable town; and because in Vol. 7 of the REGISTER there are already published some Nantucket births, marriages, and deaths ante-dating these entries, among which are recorded the births of many of the people whom George and Caleb Bunker joined in matrimony, and whose names are entered in this old account book.

The credit for the re-discovery of these records belongs to Hon. Ezra S. Stearns, Secretary of the State of New Hampshire, who called my attention to them a few months ago, while we, as members of a committee, were examining the manuscripts belonging to the Historical Society.

Dear Marian -

Your last letter does indeed hold great promise, and I share your enthusiasm! It looks as tho' we might be on the right track; how fortunate that the librarian at the Athenaeum brought the new book on the Beekman Patent to my attention! Perhaps the lack of previous good sources have been due, in at least smme small part, to the lack of these data.

The names in Henry Beekman's Rent Book show the presence in that part of NYS of Eldridges who must be your Elisha, his wife and his kin. I have had previous experience with 18th century renters of land on the Patents/Manors of Hudson Valley, NY; there are no deeds for purchases and sales per se, for such renters, and so that fine source is not available. The old rent books are a great help; A.C.M. Kelly has transcribed the various kinds of sources from the Livingston Papers, held by the NYHS, and these have been a wonderful and true source; I have used them extensively in a forthcoming (NYG&B Record,1992) on families who lived on the Livingston Manor during the 18th century.

I have done some work in RI data - I was so curious! - and enclose my findings on a separate sheet.

"Casey" as a given name on the 18th century, I believe is very unusual; I cannot ever remember seeing it before in that time span; certainly - like Clark - it suggests to me a wife's surname. He bears scrutiny. We should try other records.

John Hulsie (probably Hulse) in 1774 leased part of a farm to Elisha Eldridge and William Clark; we need whatever else is available about any Clarks in these Beekman papers. There is some material published on leasers re-leasing, but I do not have them here at home.

The rent book for 1786-1803 would cover the birth years of some of Elisha's children; again I warn you: do not to scratch the Elisha who had a son John and a son James, who "could not be my Elisha..." (your letter of 7 June) because children died or moved away, and we have to keep open minds to the now good possibility that the Elisha of the rent book is yours, and these were his children - and I would want to know if John and James, in the book, were identified as "son(s) of Elisha;" this is VITAL and ask your Wash. researcher about this angle.

Dear Marian -

I have done some work in it date - I was so unusual - and enclose my findings on a separate sheet.

I cannot ever remember seeing it before in that time span; certainly - like Dyer - it suggests to me a wide surname. Do learn scrutiny. We should try other records.

John Dutie (probably Dutse) in 1774 leased part of a farm to Elizabeth Eldridge and William Clark; we need ever\ever else is available about any Otwa in these Seaman papers. There is some material published on Isaacs re-leasing, but I do not have them here at home.

Elisha's children, Sarah & Mary, who "could not be by Elisha who had a son Moses, who ...(your letter of ? date) because children died or moved away, and we have no keep open mirror to the non good possibility that the Elisha of the rent book is yours, and these were his children and I would want to know if John & Moses, in the book, were identified as Isaac(s) of Elisha" this is VITAL and ask your Mash. researcher about this angle.

Also, we need to know about what date these people,renters in the data we now have, left this area; if the departure dates match up with records found in other NY Counties, that would be a big step forward!

There may be some data on the Beekman Patent at the NYG&B: I hope to reach it this month before it closes for its annual August (all month) holiday; if so, I'll look to see, but little could surpass the data from the rent book!

As for the Dutch Churches: I do not know how many of them have been filmed by the IGI; there are several dozen books at the G&B, and many have indices, which the CSL does not; they were made years after the Vosburgh Coll. was originally transcribed. We should cover ALL of these; to save you my time, would you like to send me a list of the Church records you have so far studied?

The IGI is available to me in Glastonbury,CT - the Mormon library there; at the NYG&B; at the Athenaeum in Pittsfield -- all a long trip away. I have not used then to the extent I perhaps should, because of the distance, but also because they are not entirely reliable; they are both a marvelous source (church records) or a very unreliable one (family data or incorrectly transcribed records).

I find no discrepancy between the Elisha et al found in the Beekman Patent Book, and the Rev. service of Elisha and Jonathan; nor of Jonathan's birth in RI and Elisha's in CT - assuming both are correct. It would be interesting to have more data on Elisha's other children and grandchildren to see if they had a Jonathan or a Samuel.

I truly believe we are on the right track -- you deserve that, after so much effort! Please keep me posted on what else you glean.

Sincerely,

Judith Luedemann

That we have Elisha, John, Samuel and William here, should be noted. More work in RI is indicated. I'd like to know what the probate and deeds hold. However, it has to be kept in mind that Kingstown suffered fires which left us today without most important data; still, I could try AUSTIN at the CSL. I have the name of a CALS who will do RI work, if it comes to that.

You might have fun tying in these people with what I fonnd in Dutchess Co.It's obvious that Content dau of Thomas & Mary ,b. 17 Jan. 1692, was the wife of Samuel Eldrdge, and suggests a rough birth date for him; dau.Patience, b. 14 Nov. 1690, married Benj. Bentley; Jonathan b. 25 Nov. 1688,son of William, was almost certainly cousin , and husband of Thomas' daughter; this strongly suggests that the parents William and Thomas Rathbun were closely related, and probably brothers. All this would be invaluable if it comes to researching Rathbun as Samuel Eldredge's wife, if Samuel is an ancestor. As for Thomas' daughter "Sybill Wilcoks," she may have been the girl born in 1707 and found as "Sebra;" possibly an error by Arnold; I found one years ago where he had transcribed "Miriam" incorrectly as "William."

Please overlook the appearance of this brown envelope; it was new and pristine when I put your label on it.

I have opened it to send you the following item,which I came across as I was filing the report to the other client with whome you shared expenses.

Dutchess Co. Deed
12:301 Isaac Baldwin and wife Mary sold to THOMAS CASEY !
land in Poughkeepsie, 20 March 1794.

So there it is: the surname CASEY in a relevant area at the right time; Thomas will need research.

There are many references for Baldwin; this client has a Baldwin ancestor, too, but I'm confident he is Thomas Baldwin who married Deborah Paddock.

Curiously, she also has an Osborn ancestor, but in what she has sent to me, I see no connection to your line. She has not asked me to work on the Osborns; apparently she already has data on them. The earliest Osborn in what I have is David whose dau.Sarah, b. 1711, married Joseph Sherwood. I think big coincidence but not closely related to your people.

Assuming you'll approve, I'll try for Freeman patent records at the NSDAR; and see what I can dig out at CSI from NJ records, now that we have some data (ante) from which to work. I'll do nothing else in NYS but await what other findings reach you. I really believe we have a good trail to follow now, a most promising one!

Dear Marian -

To check "WW...." I had to go to the Athenaeum in Pittsfield as some of the resources are there, only; then I poked around to see what I mighᵗ find. I found the enclosed which I cannot see in our correspondence.

Of special interest to me were the entries for 1813-1850. We have here an entry for the death of Susan Eldridge, daughter of Clark, in 1834; in Canandaigua; this is in Ontario Co. which seems not to have figured in your Eldreidges' history; it suggests a possible place of late residence for Clark;perhaps of his death?

So I went back to the IGI lists you sent to me - thank you. The few entries for Ontario are for

Edward Eldridge	m. Sarah Hedrick 25 Oct. 1844
Jeremiah Eldridge	m. Edna E. Dotty 12 Mar. 1870 (probably "Doty")
Maude Louise Eldredge	bp 25 Sept. 1883, dau. of Charles S. Eldredge
Midian Eldredge (misreading of Miriam?") prob.not,as	bp 9 Feb. 1829, son. of Thomas Eldredge
Midian Eldredge	m. Emily Moshier 7 June 1849

Wouldn't you surmise, on the surface of things, that they were all related in some degree to Susan? Ontario records might tell us something about Clark we'd want to know.

So I tried putting together those in Columbia Co.:

Jonathan Eldritws	bp 7 Aug. 1780, son of Joseph & Eva Schutter, at Kinderhook
Nathan Eldridge	m. 22 Mar. 180[illegible], Maria Lyck, at K.

(I don't understand the heavy lines to block out data...?)

Sara Eldrich	bp 25 Feb. 1760, dau. of ????
Wilhelmus Elderitsh	(b?)17 July 1796, son of Clark, at Gallatin Ch
Willem Eldrits	bp 28 May 1786, son of Joseph, at K.
William Eldridge	m. Sarah Rogers 1 Jan. 1809, at K.

It's noteworthy that both Clark and Joseph named a son William; both in Columbia Co.

Dear Marian -

. I'm glad "...." I had to go to the Athenaeum in Fitzwald as some of the resources are there, only; then I poked around to see what I might find. I found the enclosed which I cannot see in our correspondence.

We have here an entry for the death of Susan Eldridge, daughter of Clarke, in 1830; in Centerdale; this is in Ontario Co. which seems not to have figured in your Eldredges' history; it suggests a possible place of late residence for Jarius/perhaps of his death?

The few entries for Ontario are for

Edward Eldredge m. Sarah Derrick 25 Oct. 1834
Jerusal Eldridge m. Zona B. Doty 12 Mar.-1870 (probably "Doty")
Maude Louise Eldredge b. 25 Sept. 1913, dau. of Charles S. Eldredge
Mrs. Eldredge b. 9 Feb. 1879, dau. of Thomas Eldredge (Jarusalem of Miriam") rob.not,
Marion Eldredge m. Emily Poulter 7 June 1849

Wouldn't you agree, on the surface of things, that they were all related in some degree to Jarius? Ontario records might tell us something about Clark we'd want to know.

So I tried putting together those in Columbia Co.:

Jonathan Eldridge b. 7 Aug. 1790, son of Joseph & Eve Eldridge, at Kinderhook
Nathan Eldridge m. 22 Mar. 1801, Maria Lynch, at K.

(I don't understand the heavy lines to block out data...)

Sara Eldredge b. 25 Jan. 1790, dau. of ????
William Eldredge (Dr.)[?] Aug 1790, son of Clark, at Galatia Ch
William Eldridge b. 28 May 1795, son of Joseph, at K.
William Eldridge m. Sarah Rogers 1 Jan. 1820, at K.

This noteworthy that both Clark & Joseph named a son William;
both in Columbia Co.

Certainly Jonathan son of Joseph, assumes special significance. We already had Joseph's marriage; other children of his:

Abel Eldriths	bp 26 May 1782,at K.
Andries Eldriths	bp 7 Aug. 1780, at K.
Anna Eldrits	bp 29 Aug. 1784, at K.
Dirk Eldrich	bp 24 July 1787, at Claverack , son of Abel
(I suspect this Was Susan, ante, named for Susannah Eldridge	Abel was contemporary with Joseph.) m. 14 Nov. 1813 Isaac Van Valkenburgh, at K. ?

These names give us another string to our bow for research as a family and Claverack was one of the DRChurches to which many English brought their children for baptism,esp.in the absence of Church of England or Congregational Churches, in the area; this was true of WW and his sons.

Beatrice Eldridge was (b? hard to read) in 1916, dau. ofBarry; Ulster Co.; perhaps there are others of her family still in the area, and it might be worthwhile to try to find them, and write to ask them about their ancestry; I have done this with great success in Canada.

Hannah Margaret Eldridge	bp 12 May 1838, dau. of Benjamin, in Rochester, Ulster Co. (?)
Mary H. Eldrige	m. J. Mason Decker, 11 Mar. 1885 in U.Co.

Only one "Elisha" here! Certainly the IGI must not have completed all the available records, but these are an enormous help.

I would be glad to ~~cinue~~ Continue this for you, but perhaps you may wish to do it yourself, saving the expense of my time; I'd like to see a grouping of all in Otsego Co., Greene Co. There are so many in Otsego Co.,incl. Amos, Daniel.

Note that probably Jeremiah moved on to Wayne Co.,where his son John in the 1850 census; son Jeremiah ,also. In 1850 a Nathan was in Warren Co. . Jeremiah's son Samuel, in Wayne Co.

I really think it would be worthwhile to group these entries by county, to form probable family connections; those related to Elisha might have data which would reveal data about their ancestry; even the county histories, sometimes suspect as there was a lot of oral history, could help a lot.

Joseph Eldridge was married in 1830; son of Clark?named for brother?

In the earlier lists (1777-1834) there is Elisha, m. 1821; died 1825; prob.not same man? We also have Stephen,here, and Charles M.

Sincerely,
Judith

Re your letter of 8 September 1991:

Yes, I agree that "John" certainly looks like an important family name, but was it entirely from the Eldridge side?

The item from Ulster Co. in the Revolution is fascinating! I can accept that this was your Elisha; people moved around a lot, and he could have been living with one child or another in his late years. We need to know if there is anything about him living in Ulster Co.,in newspapers, church records, etc.; do you know if any of his children were there, particularly for the 1850 census? That Elisha spent his last days with an unmarried daughter would fit a frequent pattern.

Also - no deeds in a county may or may not be significant; Elisha may not have been a land owner in his old age. Do you know what "DAR-217" means? Elisha could have applied for a pension at Troy, but actually lived in or moved to Monticello by 1 Dec. 1841, when and where he died. Admittedly, Monticello is a long way from Troy.

Did I ever tell you about my great-grandmother, Mary Samantha Atwood (Burleigh) (Foster); she died in the early 1900's at an advanced age,in Brooklyn, NY; the death certificate said both parents were born in "Scotland," about as wild as you can get: I have proved her ancestry and with the help given in a letter she wrote to my father when he enlisted in 1898 for the Spanish-American War; she told of her father:proof positive. I could not find any burial for her in Brooklyn, altho' her second husband has a large monument there in the well known Greenwood Cemery; on her death certif, it looked as tho' she had been buried in Providence, RI - a far distance away for her to have been taken; but that was the case; I found her tombstone beside that of her daughter, in a cemetery in Providence; I can only surmise that she wanted to be buried next to this daughter who had predeceased her. So we cannot rule out the possibility that Elishe died one place, but was buried in another.

re the Osborns and Baldwins: I agree with your proposals; I think Sarah Baldwin did belong to the Ct family even tho' she was born in NYS. That Sarah and Eliza are not in a Baldwin genealogy means nothing: the old compilers esp. omitted all too many people when they had no record of them from those they chronicled. What Mrs. Christoph did find is good stuff.

I'm hopihg to reach CSL next week.

Sincerely,
Judith

Re your letter of 8 September 1991:

Yes, I agree that "John" certainly looks like an important family name, but was it entirely from the Eldridge side?

The item from Ulster Co. in the Revolution is fascinating! I can accept that this was your Elisha; people moved around a lot, and he could have been living with one child or another in his late years. We need to know if there is anything about him living in Ulster Co., in newspapers, church records, etc.; do you know if any of his children were there, particularly for the 1850 census? That Elisha spent his last days with an unmarried daughter would fit a frequent pattern.

Also - no deeds in a county may or may not be significant; Elisha may not have been a land owner in his old age. Do you know what "DAR-217" means? Elisha could have applied for a pension at Troy, but actually lived in or moved to Monticello by 1 Dec. 1841, when and where he died. Admittedly, Monticello is a long way from Troy.

Did I ever tell you about my great-grandmother, Mary Samantha Atwood (Burleigh) (Foster); she died in the early 1900's at an advanced age, in Brooklyn, NY; the death certificate said both parents were born in "Scotland," about as wild as you can get: I have proved her ancestry and with the help given in a letter she wrote to my father when he enlisted in 1898 for the Spanish-American War; she told of her father: proof positive. I could not find any burial for her in Brooklyn, altho' her second husband has a large monument there in the well known Greenwood Cemetery; on her death certif, it looked as tho' she had been buried in Providence, RI - a far distance away for her to have been taken; but that was the case; I found her tombstone beside that of her daughter, in a cemetery in Providence; I can only surmise that she wanted to be buried next to this daughter who had predeceased her. So we cannot rule out the possibility that Elisha died one place, but was buried in another.

re the Osborns and Baldwins: I agree with your proposals; I think Sarah Baldwin did belong to the Ct family even tho' she was born in NYS. That Sarah and Eliza are not in a Baldwin genealogy means nothing: the old compilers esp. omitted all too many people when they had no record of them from those they chronicled. What Mrs. Christoph did find is good stuff.

I'm hoping to reach OSL next week.

Sincerely,

Dave

Dear Marian:

This week there were mutterings from newscasters that Gov. Weicker might close government offices/services, and I thought that, rather than wait around to find out what's going on -- or off -- I'd do well to go to the CSL; so I made the trip yesterday, trying to do something for each of several clients. The day was near 100° but the library is air-conditinned, and so is my car, so I survived.

I tried for something relevant in Branford, CT Deeds/ Index 1645-1787, General Index, microfilm, Reel #958-59.

No Eldredge; the list ran from "Edwards" to "Eels," (Grantors); no Aldridge/Eldredge as Grantee; found Wheadons, many in the early years. The last entry for a Mary Whedon was "Part" 1772, survey 1768; 1772 might have been possible but not 1768, I think, for your Mary.

Thank you for the recent material. Studying again Elisha's Rev.War record, I see he enlisted first in Groton, MA; in 1774 (age 18); but "returned" to Branford and enlisted there in 1776; since he married in February 1777, he may have married not long after his return.

It is very difficult to explain why he enrolled at Groton; he could easily have been born in Mass., the southern reaches, near RI, but we have "Branford," Hew Haven," Mansfield," so place of birth is not proved.

It is my conclusion now that he probably had no immediate family in Branford - unless it were a married sister or some other relative lost to us because of another surname. If there had been even one Aldridge;Eldridge, that would have meant something, but I found none.

"The only soldier named Jonathan Eldredge" in the Rev. removed to VT; he served from CT and later is found in Addison Co.,VT; he too had a daughter Nancy - could mean his mother or wife was Nancy/Anna/Anne/Johanna/etc. It might be worthwhile to try to learn something about Jonathan from VT records

In the second index to Branford Deeds there are Betsy Aldridge, et al, 1822 (19:346) and Herrick Aldridge, quit claim; no Eldredge. I did not look up this deed, or the qc as they seem late for our purposes- 40 years or so after Elisha moved on. Still, I think it proved something that Elisha did not - apparently - have any Eldredge relatives in Branford during his time there, or earlier.

Sincerely, Judith

Dear Marian -

Last week I made the trip to Dutchess and Putnam Counties.

I found nothing for Elisha or Jonathan Eldridge; if they lived in Dutchess, it appears to have been in a household which they did not head.

However, I did find something quite fascinating: a record of one Samuel Eldridge of North Kingstowne, RI being given land by Thomas Rathbun (Rathbone) of New Shoreham (Block Island), land in the "Township of Pecapshe" in 1730/1. See the enclosed pages. Thomas also gave land to son in law Benjamin Bentley of Greenwich, RI; to daughter Sybill Wilcoks, widow; to son in law Jonathan Rathbun of Lyme, CT.

Samll Eldridge called "well beloved son in law" and husband of Thomas' daughter Content. I looked for these people in all the pages I have here from published Eldredge data, and did not find them; therefore infer that Samuel belonged to the RI branch.

Arnold's pbld. Vital Records of RI must now be searched. The term "son in law" in 1730 could also mean stepson; this will have to be determined. I found some disposition of property by Benjamin Bentley but could not find any ultimate disposition of the land Samuel Eldridge was given; this could be because he gave it, probably to a child, in a will. What is also needed now is a search for a will of Samuel Eldridge of Kingstown.

However, I have roots there - Greene, Tefft - and have done a lot of research, even in the Wakefield Town Hall. There is a HUGE problem for researchers now because Kingstowne lost many of its records through fire, years ago. Still, the publications of the various RI societies may hold something ; are they available to you? To go through them usually means volume by volume as I do not know of an overall name index, and so that takes time; I would of course gladly do for you if you cannot cover.

This RI Eldridge family might lead us to Branford; Lyme. I have ancestors in both locations; I know there are Branford data (early) published in TAG - do not have the issue at hand; Lyme VRs were published in 1976, and I have a copy of that book; there are Rathbones; the earliest entry seems to be 5 Sept. 1733 when Sarah married Job Giddings; no Jonathan; Thomas too late.

The Index ahows no Bentleys but MANY Pecks, and Clarks.The only Eldredge is John, of Chatham,MA who married 28 Jan.1838 Mary Ann Chadwick of Lyme (p.76/173)

From Dutchess I came home by way of Putnam Co.,where my other client has ancestors; I went into a small museum and there found the enclosed pamphlet and thought you might be interested. I do not know where these Haines may fit in but the pamphlet also has an interesting history of the Oblong. I think the "House Interpreter" did a very poor job; she does not tell us who built this House, unless it were E. Rockwell; perhaps the 1867 Haines is too late for you.

Since we are spinning our wheels on Elisha in one direction, let's take a look at what we can find on 1) any Elisha belonging to Samuel in RI; 2) some record of probate for him/his family, and deeds . These first steps should not be difficult, viz Arnold and the many published records. Alden Beaman has pbld. VR in recent years, but he editorialized and interpreted and I know he is guilty of at least two fat mistakes, so be wary; there's Austin's famous work for the early generations; etc.

Please let me know if you are able to work on these yourself. I will not be going to Hartford (where there are many of these) until next week at the earliest:I'm off tomorrow for a few days holiday on Cape Cod, to visit a girlhood friend,in North Chatham. So I enclose a statement.

Later I plan work on Branford deeds which are still not covered for Eldredges other than Elisha - as I infer. I hope the CS: will have what we want on microfilm; it's a long ride from this end of the State to the other, which I'd be reluctant to make, but we'll see. CSL also has Lyme ts records (Hale Colls.)

Hope your path is smoothing out!

Judith

Dear Marian -

Your recent letters have been read and noted, but only now am I able to reply, after going to NYC yesterday.

This time of year there is an annual ritual here: i have a crew of strong men come in and they transplant, uproot bushes, take down trees, shift dirt, etc. beyond the point where I can cope. I am having two more lengths of tall picket fence installed -- I'm on a main road -- and have been opening up my garden. I enjoy working in it in the spring, planting annuals, and so forth, but dislike working when the heat is in the 90s.

While you had earlier cited "Anc.Rev.Pvt.NSDAR" as a source for data on Elisha, I looked into the lineage books yesterday to see if I could latch on to something. I found several references; each gave Elisha's birthplace as "New Haven," which may be irrelevant as Branford is so close and New Haven was the core of that area, but still...so I tried the N.H.V.R. = nothing and very little indeed for the name.

You, I noted, have his pension application.

I did note that he was "buried with military honors" (21:194-5) and wonder if the town records of Lansingburg might have made a note; 1841 is a little early for newspapers but they did exist and then, often, there would be an obituary or a write-up on such a funeral; you might want to look into this possible resource.

Some of these lineages gave grandchildren, but seemed to have the same data on Elisha, tho' others-in-line differed. These are early applications, and often one applicant copied from another, and their data are now sometimes suspect. Still, the further down towards recent generations, the more accurate.

Elisha's son John had a son Robert Wheaton (sic) Elderdge, b.1810: "Robert"? And "Wheaton" may mean the same case as "Aldredge."

What I particularly wanted to check out was Jonathan Eldredge who was, like Elisha, in Capt. Pearce's Minute Man Co., enlisted 1 August 1776 - 2 days before Elisha - settler of the Beekman Patent; of medium height - like Elisha; two years older than Elisha; I suspect they just might have been brothers; certainly some relationship is indicated if one considers all this more than coincidental.

That Elisha was b. in RI and Jonathan,in CT, poses no problem for me: the parents could have moved; the mother could have had one child at her parents' home;all kinds of possibilities.

I found (DAR)that Jonathan was born 19 November 1752; died 10 September 1840 (place not given); married Mary Champlin; "Pvt.CT." Enlisted in 1775 in the 6th Ct Regt (119:231).

Since yours is such a tough problem, I suggest that you write to ask the GSA for his bounty/pension application; if Elisha's does not list more than you've cited, it's within the realm of likelihood that Jonathan's might give more personal data. I wrote several months ago to ask the GSA for forms to fill in, and never even had a reply! One client of mine always 'phones to Wash., DC to ask for them, and he does get them,then!

I had also waited before replying because I hoped to reach CSL first but now will have to wait until next week. I want to check on the Elisha in Woodstock; I had inferred - always dangerous - that Woodstock,CTwas meant; certainly it is important to determine if that is correct, or if it were instead NYS! Will report to you as soon as I reach CSL.

Something I thought curious was attribution of Elisha's service to Mass., "Pvt.Mass." Although, as I've explained, people moved around a lot more than many today realize, one wonders...I did not have time yesterday to study the areas of combat for Capt. Pearce's Co.beyond "Minute Man" and that should be done. Does your source give the date when Elisha and Jonathan settled on the Beekman Patent? The history of the Patent should also be studied; the NYG&B might have something and I could try next time. (Yesterday was Grandparents' Day at Nicole's school; then I had lunch with my son; then I got to the NYG&B about 1:30 with several other loose ends to study;so it goes.)

You note that some of the census do not jibe with your record of Elisha's children as of the pertinent year; that is a caution, but remember that the mortality rate was sometime appalling, and so children came, and children were lost; allowance has to be made for that.

Has anyone ever searched Dutchess Co. deeds for Eldredge? There is that thick book of abstracts; have you covered that?

I'm also curious about the Stephen Eldrege who married Elizabeth ( ) and had children bapt at Troy; Elisha who mar. Priscilla Paddock had a son Stephen,b.1756,which brings him close to the David I've looked into.

I'm also curious about the Stephen Aldredge who married Elizabeth ( ) and had children born at Troy; Elisha who mar. Priscilla Paddock had a son Stephen,b.1756,which brings him close to the David I've looked into.

In quoting your undle's collected data, you give a birth year of 1782 for Elisha's son John (26 Dec. 1990) but28 Oct.1784 on another page - I infer a typo. the DAR gives 1784.

When you wrote that you had not found Elisha in the 1790 or 1800 census, did you include Mass.? He and Mary and their -by-that-date-children could have been living with a relative,if in NYS, and I suspect that could be the case and part of our problem today; we need a household with at least two adult males.

If the "State List of Rev.War soliders," does not include Elisha, as you wrote, I infer that means CT, but he was perhaps "Pvt.MAss." so the many volume set of Mass. Soldiers and Sailors should list him; I didn't think of this until I got home last night; I'm certain they are at CSL and I will try there for a record for Elisha - and Jonathan.

I note that several of Elisha's children died after 1850 and assume that you have checked the 1850 census for their birthplaces; they would give a strong clue as to the whereabouts of the parents those years; Sarah,b.1778, married Ebenezer Warn; d. 1853: she would - should - be in the 1850 census under Warn; you have her birthplace as "CT prob.," and I feel this should be checked out and determined; the same for all the others. Elizabeth Eldredge,b.1796, d. 1885; the 1880 census shows the birthplaces of both parents - as you probably know; has that been checked? Worth a try; she married John Quinlon; I do not find any place of residence or death for them, but think the census should be searched for them in earlier years; they must have married by 1850 and that census is indexed for everyplace, by now; worth sorting through the volumes;I'll be very interested in what Elizabeth gave.

We assume that pension applicants gave their own data, and so we have to accept that your Elisha went to Groton,MA to enlist.....returned to Branford and re-enlisted; OK. You have written that Branford Land Records were researched, but was that just for Elisha or for ALL Eldredges?I could check on this aspect at CSL,if you wish.

Another point: p.167 of the Clyde Mulford Eldredge genealogy: David mar. (1) and had Elizabeth, b. 1756; mar. (2) Chloe and - I infer - had two more children, Anne in 1777,Adoniram in 1779; since Anne died in 1775, a marriage in 1776-6 would produce a first child in 1777. Still, this record shows only one child for Anne in a 20 year period - perfectly plausible, but one wonders.

On the same page, a Stephen Eldredge b.1779 mar. Elizabeth Chapman (no date of marriage) but they would fit as the paremts of children born/bp 1814-1816 in Troy,Rens.Co. P.167: Hezekiah had a son Hezekiah, as well as Stephen; the Hezekiah in Troy looks contemporary with Stephen,there; the Troy Hez. had a wife Mary.....

In quoting your uncle's collected data, you give a birth year of 1784 for Elisha's son John (26 Dec. 1790) but28 Oct.1784 on another page - I infer a typo. the DAR gives 1784.

When you wrote that you had not found Elisha in the 1790 or 1800 census, did you include Mass.? I note that several of Elisha's children died after 1850 and assume that you have checked the 1850 census for their birthplaces; they would give a strong clue as to the whereabouts of the parents three years; Sarah,b.1778, married Ebenezer Weir; d. 1853: she would - should - be in the 1850 census under Weir: you have her birthplace as "VT prob.." and I feel this should be checked out and determined; the same for all the others. Elizabeth Eldredge,b.1795, d. 1885; the 1880 census shows the birthplaces of both parents - as you probably know; has that been checked? Worth a try; she married John Quinlon; I do not find any place of residence or death for them, but think the census should be searched for them in earlier years; they must have married by 1850 and that census is indexed for everyplace, by now; worth sorting through the volumes;I'll be very interested in what Elizabeth gave.

The Elisha and Jonathan of Beekman Patent are another lead to be checked out; the age differential is not world-shaking, esp.since we have no proof that your Elisha was born 1756; he was near the Mass. border perhaps in 1775 when he enlisted in what I assume was a Mass. Co., and may never have set foot in Branford until he was married there - having met his bride goodness only knows how. We cannot close the door on these leads until they have been checked out and then - only - dismissed.

Thank you for your checks; it was very thoughtful of you to bring the retainer up. I enclose a statement at this time just to keep our records straight, and I have deducted 15 minutes for 5/10 from the balance. I hope to reach Hartford on Tuesday, and will then report again.

Whatever is going on, your sense of humor appears intact!

Dear Marian -

Yesterday, I went to Durham, CT. I have another client who had a Durham problem, and I knew that "Prudence Osborn came to Goshen (CT) from Durham..." (my letter of 2 October 1990, p.4) and while I am satisfied that we have your Osborn line, there are those wives... Then there are those loose ends in Mansfield. So I decided to make the trip to Durham and Mansfield.

In Durham I found quite a lot on NORTON. There are BALDWINS, including a Sarah,d. Noah & Mehitable, b. 13 Nov. 1765 (D VR p.315) who proves the given name in the Baldwin family;too early for yours; I saw none later.

I found a deed from Noah, 8 Dec. 1804, to James CLARK (12:104) the last for Noah as grantor; property bounded northerly by Oliver Clark's land...; Reuben Baldwin,deed to Oliver Clark 25 July 1803 (12:240.

Noah B'. to Reuben b. 12 May 1783, a quit claim (9:263).Noah Baldwin died 9 June 1812 in 73d year (ts records, Town Hall).

These may not be relevant unless the given names show up in NYS but there are a goodly number of Baldwins here.

On to Mansfield - that is, to Storrs, where there is a new Town Hall next to U Conn. Deeds here are on file cards (Mdd)

It may be that I have resolved an Elisha problem. In 1828 there was an Elisha "of Woodstock" which may help resolve the question of the Elisha who had a child - daughter Elizabeth - in 1756? I suspect this.

However, what caught my eye was another record: you'll recall that on 1 January I wrote about the David - no birth date assigned - son of Mulford, brother of Elisha. I was curious about David. I found this:

I David Eldredge in County of Montgomery and State of New York, for £204 quit claimed to Benjamin Hanks of Litchfield (CT) land in Mansfield First Society, 100 acres with buildings thereon, 9 May 1788; witnesses Jehiel Storrs, Uriah Hanks Junr. (11:156)

This clearly places David in NY State at a time when we know your Elisha was there (based on places of birth of oldest children) and we now have Clark et al in NY State in pertinent years.

Dear Marian -

Yesterday, I went to Durham, CT. I have another client who had a Durham problem, and I knew that "Prudence Osborn came to Goshen (CT) from Durham..." (my letter of 2 October 1990, p.4) and while I am satisfied that we have your Osborn line, there are those wives... Then there are those loose ends in Mansfield. So I decided to make the trip to Durham and Mansfield.

In Durham I found quite a lot on NORTON. There are BALDWINS, including a Sarah,d. Noah & Mehitable, b. 13 Nov. 1765 (D VR p.315) who proves the given name in the Baldwin family;too early for yours: I saw none later.

I found a deed from Noah, 8 Dec. 1804, to James CLARK (12:10A) the last for Noah as grantor; property bounded northerly by Oliver Clark's land...; Reuben Baldwin,deed to Oliver Clark 25 July 1803 (12:24C).

Noah Bbn of Reuben b. 12 May 1783, a quit claim (9:269).Noah Baldwin died 9 June 1812 in 73d year (ts records, Town Hall).

These may not be relevant unless the given names show up in MVS but there are a goodly number of Baldwins here.

On to Mansfield - that is, to Storrs, where there is a new Town Hall next to U Conn. Deeds here are on file cards(MVS)

It may be that I have resolved an Elisha problem. In 1828 there was an Elisha "of Woodstock" which may help resolve the question of the Elisha who had a child - daughter Elizabeth - in 1756? I suspect this.

However, what caught my eye was another Elisha: you'll recall that on 1 January I wrote about the David - no birth date assigned - son of Mulford, brother of Elisha. I was curious about David. I found this:

I David Eldredge in County of Montgomery and State of New York, for $20A quit claimed to Benjamin Hanks of Litchfield (CT) land in Mansfield First Society, 100 acres with buildings thereon, 9 May 1788; witnesses Uriah Storrs, Uriah Hanks Junr. (11:156)

This clearly places David in NY State at a time when we know your Elisha was there (based on places of birth of oldest children) and we now have Clark et al in NY State in pertinent years.

There are other deeds for what I assume is this same David (in the article in the NEHGS Register, Jan. 1897, David son of Elisha Eldredge and Dorcas Mulford), as the only other one here, of the name, born 1773 - too late.

1769 7:444 David Eldredge of Mansfield, for £ 75, quit claimed to Elisha Eldredge of Southold, County Suffolk, Province of New York, land in Mansfield, 22 August 1769; wits. Daniel Coit, Cathar Richards

(This mention of an Elisha in Suffolk Co.is intriguing tho' it muddies the waters)

1767 7:413 David Eldredge of M. "for the consideration of the Love Good Will and affection which I have...towards my sister-in-law Abiel Eldredge wife to my brother Mulford of Willington...and to John Eldredge and Dorcas Eldredge son and daughter of said Mulford & Abiel..." land in Mansfield, 23 April 1767; wits. Hezekiah Crane, Benjamin Agard Junr

(This record clearly proves that this David WAS the son of Elisha and brother of Mulford; see p. 48 of the article. He was shown here without a birthdate, or subsequent history, and this happens very often when a man leaves the home ground and moves on, which is probably why the compiler has no data on him.)

1784 10:122 David Eldredge was still of Mansfield when he sold for £ 500 to Hezekiah Crane Junr of Mansfield, land there, "which is the farm on which I now dwell..." 19 April 1784; wits. Exper. Storrs, Lucy Storrs.

1785 This was probably his home; he moved on - we do not yet know just where - but by 1788 he was in Montgomery Co.,NY .

7:129 David of Mansfield to Uriah Hanks, 249 acres; wits. William Bassett, Const(ant) Southworth; recorded 6 May 1765

10:424 John Eldredge of Sallisbury (sic) Co.of Litchfield, for the love, good will and affection which I have towards my venerable Mother Abial Eldredge wife to my Hond Father Mulford Eldredge of Mansfield..all rights to 6 acres in Mansfield, 4 June 1784 ; wits. David Eldredge, James (Danbe?)

(This was about the time David was selling; the deed identifies the John Eldredge in Salisbury).

Abiel Eldredge w. Deac. Mulford Eldredge, died Febry 17, 1791

I am not certain about this Elisha, but we at least have a link to the Hanks.

David Eldredge married 7 Sept. 1755 Anne Whittemore, both of Mansfield
Anne d. in 1775
married 9 May 1776 Chloe Carter(?) of Kent

(I do not have copies of the pages from the other Eldredge genealogy, alas, so feel a little handicapped).

This Chloe Eldredge has to be the one who was in Schoharie Co.,NY in 1810, over ae 45 with male and female, 26-45, and one female under 10.

This to me is further,good proof that it was her husband David who moved to NY State; no death record for them found in Mansfield, he prob. d. by 1810.

Even if David does not turn out to be your Elisha's father, a close tie is suggested. I still believe your man belonged to the family in Mansfield. He could have moved with the usual family/kin migration group. To be David's son, he'd have to be born in CT in 1756 if that birthdate is correct, and we infer that David was still in Mansfield that year.

I found the marriage of Elisha Eldredge to Priacilla Paddock - no date in the Register article, which was () Jan. 1743; the list of their children matches and I learned that Elisha was a son; so was Zuar.

While none of these data is conclusive I hold as building blocks; David cannot be ruled out as a close relative of your Elisha, if not father.

One reason is that if Elisha were born in NYS, that would mean his parents had moved from CT by 1756 - if too early for David, not for another member of this family?

The only other possible forebears of your Elisha, as I read the Reg. article, would be the men "believed to be" the sons of William[1]: Samuel, who had "eight children," not named; and John - not carried on. The only child here attributed to an older son, Elisha, b. 1653, was another Elisha, not carried on but, one infers, remaining in Mass.

I'd appreciate it if you would compare these data with what are in the other Eldredge genealogy, and let me know if I've gone off the track. I think David should be checked out.

This tack would resolve the question of your Elisha being in NYState at the time others of the name were still in CT.

In a Survey of Durham's old houses, I found a reference to "Aaron Baldwin (1770 -)who, on moving with a large group of Durhamites to New York State," sold the house he had inherited from his father, Ezra Baldwin.

(no.28)

No death date for Aaron here, no doubt because he died elsewhere. A lot of the Durham,CT people moved to (New) Durham, NY but of course, they always fanned out.

Something else to remember is that I have found close ties between people early in Salisbury, Canaan, Sharon, CT and those across the border in New York; thus John's presence in Salisbury, and his burial in Salisbury, died 28 Dec. 1831 ae 76 years (my letter of 18 Jan. p.2) clearly leave us with this possibility for the families in the Dutch Church records.

Further, Oliver Clark had a son Ward, b. 1754 (p.3); Jehoshaphet Eldredge of Warren ; also Elisha, John and WARD..?

I expect to to go CSL next week, and will try for those L.I.records for Hicks; by then, the NY stacks should be in place; the Library of Congress numbering which the Library has undertaken, means whole shelves go off to an inner sanctum, and one is left without them..very frustrating.

All this does not mean we can eliminate Samuel Eldred and his line, but as you know, the right way to work is from the more recent generations backwards, and as you've agreed, the NY research means an enormous amount of credence. Thus I think David et al including John, his nephew, circumstantial tho' these data may be, deserve close attention.

I have been very reluctant to undertake long rides/allday trips for research, and "subcontract" very often, for myself and others; however, with two clients with problems in the same area, I decided to make this trip. It's curious that the other client also has an ancestor in Durham and environs but with proved data in Branford! The cost for the trip to Durham is divided between you; because there was so little there for you, I am not charging you for the milage to Mansfield (from Durham) to be fair; I hopeyou approve. Mansfield was further away than I thought, and except that I hailed a state policeman, who gave me directions to Storrs, I might still be driving around Mansfield - Mansfield Depot looking for the Town Hall!

I look forward to your comments.

Sincerely,

Judith H.Luedemann

Dear Matian:

Now that the dust is settling around here, I am back in harness. Nicole's visit was a precious time to me; we had a wonderful time together. Then a friend of many years came for a visit immediately after, and that is the way things went.

Your letter of 31 March conveyed your excitement; and I shouldn't wonder! I think you may have latched onto something. It was very astute of you to realize that Elderitsh and Eldrits were no doubt convoluted spellings of Eldridge.

Clark was a contemporary of Elisha, and he may have been closely related. It would be a great coincidence if the name Clark were just loosely thrown around in both men's families.

I reviewed my file, and see that Elisha had a daughter Catharine; named for an aunt-by-marriage? That might well be the case; I do not find any in Elisha's family named Joseph or Eva, but that is not important.

Many English (Protestant) attended churches not of their own particular persuasion if there was none in the area; thus we find so many English names in the Dutch churches' registers - the spelling,in many case, badly mangled. Thus these Eldridges, 'tho' Episcopal, Congregational or whatever, might have used the offices of local Dutch Churches.

I made it to NYC on Tuesday; to the G&B. I looked through the Abstracts of Columbia Co.,NY Wills,(Letters)(Abs. Gertrude Barber, 1936)

Vol.I begins 1786
Vols 2,3,4,5,6,7,8 which ends 1851; I found nothing to link to these Eldridges.

History of Columbia Co., NY, Benjamin F. Ellis, for which there is now an index; Daniel W. enlisted 8 Sept. 1864 d. 10 June 1865 (of Canaan) (pp 421-3)
Several Baldwin;no Sarah

I looked up the names of the spouses of the Eldridge men,in the Kinderhook Church, but nothing rang a bell.

A study of the NY census would help, but the CSL has few for NY and those mostly for 1790,scattered others. Do you have these available to you?

If Nancy claimed that her parents were members of the Dutch Reformed Church,

If Nancy claimed that her parents were members of the Dutch Reformed Church, that would strengthen the clue that these men were in Columbia Co., which has not been as well mined as Dutchess Co. Do you have available The Columbian, a current magazine on the County? That has data which might be fruitful to cull; if you do not have handy, I'll try to get to it;I hope to get back to NYC within a couple of weeks. I do not want to do what you can - and might like - to do.

However, it is possible that Clark and Joseph did not remain in Columbia Co.,but moved on; this is what the later censūs might tell us; I would hope that one or the other would surface. As you know, there were Dutch Reformed Churches in early times and on, from NYC to Schenectady; the Mohawk Valley was peopled by Germans, Dutch - English intermingled. Perhaps the IGI does cover all these churches, but A.Kelly has done a wide-ranging publication of many of these churches; the Vosburgh Coll. has many - all at NYG&B - and others have been abstracted,too.

People moved around a lot more in colonial times than most people realize. He and Mary Wheadon may have married in eastern CT, but Elisha could have met her there through relatives - there could be a hundfed explanations - and yet been born in NYS himself.

It might be a good idea to look into Dutchess Co.records -nnt yet in depth, but a look to see if the name is there in any relevant context. It would make sense - to answer your question - that someone from that area of NY would end up in Branford, CT. Also, that someone might have roots in Branford, gone back there for some reason - stay-behind relatives? - and so met his bride.

I am perfectly willing to undertake research for Elisha as a descendant of Samuel but I do not want to take up a lot of your time on a wild goose chase. Before doing so,now, I think further work on Clark and Joseph might be in order; sometimes a problem can be answered not by approaching it head-on, but by a circumvention, such as Clark and Joseph might provide. I agree that two Clark Eldridges could certainly have been named for a mutual ancestor.

Please let me know what you'd like me to do on this angle.

Sincerely,

Judith

Re: ELDRIDGE/JENNISON Research

Dear Marian:

I hope I may call you by your first name. Since I've talked to you one the phone a couple of times, I feel like I know you.

I meant to send this New York material to you before this but it's been very hectic around here. I hope this will clarify how the counties evolved and help you to understand New York research a little better. It's possible for a person to have never moved and still have lived in several counties. Also, in New York the Town in a county is the primary record keeping source, rather than the county in other states.

I have checked the Ontario County 1855 Census three time for Clark Eldridge in Canadiagua and don't find him. The only one in his family I found was Mary Eldridge Crofut and enclose a photocopy of her family. Note the she says she was born in Ontario County and has lived all of her life in Canadiagua. The family group sheet you sent for Clark lists her birthplace as Woodstock, Ulster County. What's your source for that info?

The last time I checked the census I also searched a number of other Towns on the film but didn't find Clark. I also checked Monroe County, Penfield on the possibility he may have been there but the film was so bad I couldn't read it.

March 27th

It's been two weeks since I started this letter...I've had to finish the books for the accountant here at the office, plus the daily routine, plus trying to get research done on my days off. We're flying out to Dayton, Ohio tomorrow and I want to get this info in the mail before I go.

I have checked every town in Ontario County for Clark Eldridge & family and don't find him. Any ideas? I checked Sullivan County and enclose the page for Elizabeth Eldridge Quinlan. Note she says she was born in Greene County. Since she was born in 1796 when Ulster was the parent county, possibly in the area that became Greene County. I had absolutely no idea where to find Nancy Eldridge in Rensselaer County - she isn't listed in the Indexes of 1850 or 1860. Checked Lansingburgh but didn't find her.

The Elisha Eldridge in Cayuga County could be yours but I don't think so. I did at first but in looking at the Census Indexes there was an Elisha their over many years while yours seems to have been somewhere else. I found lots of Eldridges in Schoharie County while I was doing another search last week but no familiar names at all.

In your letter of February 25th you told me the story of Barney Haynes, the father of Henry. What is your source on this? I found a Barnabas Haines living in Saratoga County in the 1810 census with two men between the ages 16/26. Is one of these men Henry? I didn't even think of this until right now. The index doesn't list females over 16 - I'll try and check this to see if there is a female of Abigail's age. Stories passed down in the family contain many truths but sometimes generations get mixed up. I've found this in my own family research.

I photocopied the NYS IGI the other day at NYSHA Library for Eldridge & Jennison. Check it out and see if anything looks familiar to you.

I'll close and get this letter in the mail. I know it seems disconnected but you have a puzzle here - I can understand your frustration. Any sources you have I'd like to know about. Did your uncle cite any sources at all? With out something to go on it's very difficult. I've checked all the Tree Talks (published by Central NY Gen. Soc.) for all of the counties we've talked about and find nothing. I've checked all Ulster & Greene County Church Records available at NYSHA Library and find nothing. I'm really not sure of where to go from here.

Marian my research fees are $10.00 per hour plus the cost of out-of-pocket expenses. I have exceeded the five hours of the check you first sent so I would appreciate another check if you want me to proceed. The copies I'm sending are a gift from me this time. Anything you can give me as a source I'd really appreciate.

Have a Happy Easter and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Shirley H—

Dear Marian -

Your letter of 21 January arrived before I further pursued Elisha, son of Jehosophat, so I was especially glad to have that data. You do not cite a source, but I assume you are satisfied with it, and so I accept it.

To put your mind at rest: on 5 December 1990 you wrote that "From the census, I have figured out that they (Elisha and Mary) lingered in MA through Oct.1780 when their second child was born." It was the source for this, that I'd questionned.

Last week I was able to so a little work at the NYG&B; I found the enclosed records of the "Greene Co. Churches"; I found no early Summers but this long list of Baldwins; do any of them strike a note?

Working for another client in Newtown, CT, I found early Sarah Baldwins born there: Sally d Isaac & Francis(sic) b. 6 Apr. 1787 (1:86)
d. John b. 15 Jan. 1800 (2:58)
Sary d. Caleb Jr. & Ann of Wiskenxor, b. 2 July 1745 (I:80)
These are too early for your Sarah/Sally, but I know that many families moved north from New Milford to fhe settlements such as Cornwall, Goshen, etc. There is no Isaac in the Greene Ch rec, nor Caleb, and only John Stanton. Your NY researcher might like this listing.

While at CSL I looked into the Vertical/Family File, and did not find anything relevant for Eldred/Eldredge.

Dear Marian -

Your letter of 21 January arrived before I further pursued Elisha, son of Jehosophat, so I was especially glad to have that data. You do not cite a source, but I assume you are satisfied with it, and so I accept it.

To put your mind at rest: on 5 December 1990 you wrote that "from the census, I have figured out that they (Elisha and Mary) lingered in VA through Oct.1780 when their second child was born." It was the source for this that I'd questioned.

Last week I was able to do a little work at the NYG&B; I found the enclosed records of the "Greene Co. Churches"; I found no early Summers but this long list of Baldwins; do any of them strike a note?

Working for another client in Newbliford, I found early Sarah Baldwins born there: Sally d Isaac & Francis(sic) b. 6 Apr. 1787 (1:86)
d. John b. 15 Jan. 1800 (2:58)
Sary d. Caleb Jr. & Ann of Wakenxor, b. 2 July 1745 (1:80)
These are too early for your Sarah/Sally, but I know that many families moved north from New Milford to the settlements such as Cornwall, Goshen, etc. There is no Isaac in the Greene Ch rec, nor Caleb, and only John Stanton. Your NY researcher might like this listing.

While at GSL I looked into the Vertical/Family File, and did not find anything relevant for Eldred/Eldredge.

I am not billing you at this time because I want to look further at the David I emphasized earlier; that means work at CSL. After that, there may be little more, if anything, I can do hereabouts until we have data from work done in upstate NY. What we need is a deed for your Eldredges/ Osborns which gives boundaries naming relevant surnames; often they mean some kind of relationship; deeds in pertinent towns for Baldwins, too, which might tell whence they came; that sort of thing. I plan to go to Hartford early next week, and will report then to you. Please let me know if you have some line of research I have not covered!

Sincerely,

Judith

Dear Marian -

Thank you for your letter of 5 January, and your check.

In spite of the heavy weather we've had recently, I made it to Hartford; I live on a main, school-bus road, which is always plwped early, so I have to wait until I'm plowed and shoveled out of my own yard.

In your various listings of bibliographies, I cannot find any mention of a genealogy I found at CSL: The Family of Clyde Mulford Eldridge and Other Descendants of William Eldred of Yarmouth, Luella Eldridge, 1983. I enclose pertinent pages from it which I'm confident you will want to study.

Unfortunately, it is another one of those detailed genealogies which does not pinpoint sources/proofs, and since it was published as late as 1983, would think Ms. Eldridge should have known better.

The families in Mansfield is clearly traced to William[1], which eliminates this line from descent from Samuel[1].

The line from William[1] - "Elisha's line" not specifying which Elisha, nonetheless traces this line to the David[4] I had suggested should be researched. According to this work, he had three children, including one son, Adoniram .This may be correct; wish we knew if she'd found documentation. I'd already found proof of his marriages and two of his children, in the Mansfield VR, qv.

Before I began to pursue this David, I scanned these pages; I was struck by data on p. 185: here we have Jehosophat, born 1716 in Falmouth; died 1801 in Warren, CT; married Elizabeth Swift in 1747; had children including

Elisha born "1756 in Kent," CT

In the Kent VR I found that Elisha s Jehosaphet & Bettey was born 1 August 1756 (VR LRI:8) In the DAR, according to your summary, Elisha was born 21 August 1756 in New Haven or Mansfield,CT; no source of proof and can't be town records as it's a case of "or." 1 Aug. and 21 Aug. could mean an error in someone's transcription, but the birth of Elisha on such close dates is noteworthy. Jehosaphet seems not to have been included in other records I now have. He is, that is, mentioned in the Register article, p.47, and shown with a son Elisha, but no dates for this Elisha, here, and nothing further on the father or any of his 7 children. Many of the same people - like Mulford - are in both accounts.

In Barbour, I found

David Elderdge died 3 June 1797 (Willington VR B:25)
Anna w David d. 3 Oct. 1775 (Mansfield VR D:318).
Elisha d. 9 Nov. 1754 (MVR D:317)
Elisha married Priscilla Paddoxk () Jan.1743 (MVR D:236)

These give us helpful dates. Both of David's marriages in the records.

The early Kent residents had their probate records recorded in Danbury; later, Kent had its own district. Knowing this, I tried both Kent probate (microfilm at CSL) and for Danbury; once,for another client, I solved a difficult problem by a will I found for a Kent resident, in Danbury liber.

I found nothing for J. in either place. However, there may well be data on him and his children at Kent (such as we found to the north for the Osborns!) and I'd like to try there; Kent is not a great distance from Roxbury, and I could try next week if the weather holds out.

Just to make sure, I looked into the two volumes of CT Divorces, cmpld by Gerris & Knox, for New London,Tolland and Windham; and Litchfield and Hartford Counties, and found nothing relevant.

There is a probate for Ward Eldred of Warren in the Litchfield Dist.; his brother Elisha Eldred was to receive one chase (sic); bequests to Ruth Williams; to Judah Eldred; to Betty Sackett; bond given by Judah and Samuel.

Samuel Eldred of Warren, 1828, #1949, 1 distrb.

Dimmis Eldred, No. 1948, 1839

Since these people were milling around not so far from the areas where your Osborns were to be found, I take them seriously even tho' we have the "Eldred" spelling for them.

Jehoshaphet

In the 1790 CT census, under Eldred,/Judah, Elisha, Samuel and Ward all were listed together in Warren, Litchfield Co.

In 1800, Jehoshaphet was in Warren, 2 in Family; last entry for him Elisha was in Warren, 5 in family; Ward, 3 in family; John Jr.(?) 5 in family.

I saw no ts for Jehosaphet in the Hale Coll.

6:503 Isaac Tickner of Kent for £ 200 paid by Judah and Elisha Eldred of Kent, land in Kent, ;wits. Zenas Pinero (sp?), James Pinero Jr. 18 Nov. 1779

If this should turn out to be your Elisha, I could see no deed for him after this as grantor;something I'd like to check.

It's true that the spelling "Eldred" throws one off since your Elisha seems to have used "Eldredge" (I'd skip "Alfredge) but we should not eliminate him until he's been checked out. He could simply have gone to this latter spelling as an adult because he wanted to do so.

Of course, all of this conflicts with your data on Elisha being in MASS in Oct. 1780....proof? His children born in NYS could mean that je moved on after he sold property in Kent; this is what I'd like to pursue at Kent; the requirement of limited time at microfilm readers at CSL makes research inconvenient: just as one hits one's stride, someone is at your elbow.

This is an interim report.

Dear Marian:

Since receiving your letter of 13 December, I have been studying it.

It seems to me that while we have to leave the door open for a Virginia "Aldridge," the CT records should be thoroughly combed.

I come back to Branford deeds; also those for Mansfield. This is the essential, first step. The spelling of the surname in deeds - and other town records - would be tremendously helpful.

The advice you've had that "it was odd that my Elisha would have come down to Branford from Mansfield/Windham Co.) because it was not a usual migration pattern" is something I totally reject. This is a dangerous generalization; the more I work, the more I realize people took off in all directions- and returned to them.

I'm sure it's just a typo but you have both Clark Eldridge and John Eldridge born in 1784. Clark was probably some wife's surname. There were several families of Clark along the Sound; see if you can find D.L.Jacobus ' book on Clarks.

In tying together family given names, remember that "Nancy" could also have been Ann/Anne/Anna/Johanna/Hannah,etc/

Another tack would be to follow up on the 3 Elishas on p. 1 of "summary;" the process of elimination can be very valuable. I'd be interested to see the original Branford Church record to see if a transcriber had correctly read the old writing.

You have written that Elisha had, in 1790 "1 s.ov.16;" not possible;his first child was a daughter, borh 1778; second child Wheadon, who would have been 10 yrs old in 1790. Have you looked in the 1790 census for Mass. as well as CT and NY?I'd do that. I'd also look for Wheadons; did Thomas move on?Elisha could have been living in the household of another Eldridge; of Thomas or another Wheadon. Saratoga needs research if Nancy were born there.

By 1840 Elisha was still alive but was ca 84 years old; he was probably living with a child; see what the 1840 census has for his children,esp. those in Lansingburgh .

Years ago I picked up a copy of Gazetteer and Business Directory of Broome and Tioga Counties, N.Y., 1872-3, cmpld and pbld. by Hamiltno Child, 1872. A few days ago I went through it page by page, looking for data for another project. However, I found some pertinent items:

p.184 in Candor, Tioga Co. "The first preacher was Rev. Seth Williston, who came to this locality as early as 1797-8. Rev. Jeremiah Osborne was the first settled minisrer...

"The Cong. Ch at Candor was organized...in 1808 by...Williston."

The combination of names and the timing caught my eye. I have known families of the 18th and 19th centuries to name children after esteemed ministers - without a blood relationship - something to keep in mind.

If I were you I'd tell your NY researcher about Eldredge for any area where it and Osborn are found; this can mean that work done for one can be done for both which is often time-saving, and avoids going back over the same material later.

Further, work on Mansfield deeds appears mandatory. Studying the other Elishas (summary, your p.1) the names seems irrelevant to those of your Elisha's children except for Sarah, who just might have been named for Sally (Sarah) Hunt; this Sally married Elijah Eldredge of Mansfield; related to Elisha?

Cordial best wishes for a Merry Christmas!

Sincerely,

Judith

Dear Cousin Marian -

Before I posted the two previous pages, your packet arrived, and I studied it. It is very interesting and obviously a great amount of research has already been done on Wheadon as well as Eldridge.

I infer that you have proved the descents, including that from Dorcas Rose and Daniel Swaine; I descend from Elizabeth Rose, Dorcas' sister, and Michael Taintor ; they are part of my Grandfather Hine's Atwood-Strong line.

I have no Swaine but have researched for a client and you probably know all about the removal to Newark, NJ, etc., of some of the families. Have you seen the huge Rose Genealogy of recent date?

As I read your material, it struck me that no work seems to have been done into Mansfield - or Willington - deeds, which seem to be of primary importance. Yesterday I made it to C S L; I am playing catch-up but did some work for you; I tried to divide my time evenly. (In addition to the usual, many pre-Christmas activities, I had a misery, but recovered to make the trip to NYC Christmas Day to be with my son and granddaughter; I am however, far behind in my work.)

What I found is short, but of value.

In Mansfield, The Indexed Deeds 1770-1783 (Reel 869) show Elisha Eldredge selling land 1 March 1769 to John Bundy of Mansfield (8:99)

David Eldredge was also a Grantor (8:303, 334, 243)

Elisha Eldredge was a grantee, of Mansfield, 1769; David pp 70,315,418; Lemuel 172,540-3.

Vol.9 did not include the surname in the Index!

Vols. 10-11 (Reel 870) carried the Eldredges: David,John, Mulford, Lemuel, David, Abiel, 1783-1792

Today, when I sat down to study the publ.d (NEHGS Register) the William Eldredge genealogy, trying to match up with these deeds, it seemed to me that the only Elisha alive in 1769 (not the man born 1756!) was the Elisha born in Truro, 30 Oct. 1742 (p.48) and so ae 27 in 1769 - a good age to be dealing in real estate. He was son of Mulford, born in 1713; Mulford had a brother David, no birth date assigned to him, and not carried on. I suspect this man was the David above.

Today, when I sat down to study the publ.d (NEHGS Register) the William Eldredge genealogy, trying to match up with these deeds, it seemed to me that the only Elisha alive in 1769 (not the man born 1750!) was the Elisha born in Truro, 30 Oct. 1742 (p.48) and so as 27 in 1769 - a good age to be dealing in real estate. He was son of Mulford, born in 1713; Mulford had a brother David, no birth date assigned to him, and not carried on. I suspect this man was the David above.

When you have a man selling land in his home town, as Elisha did in 1769, and then going off the map, it is a fairly safe assumption (always keeping in mind the danger of generalities) that he moved; I suspect too that this is what this Elisha did. It is now of the greatest importance to try to find where he went. His father whose will you cited certainly did have a son old enough to have a son by 1769, tho' not by 1756; this complicates matters for this Elisha.

However, what about David? If the compiler has it right, Mulford was followed by Jesse, b. 1715; Elisha, b . 1717/8 (who in this article has no son Elisha; "Elishama" sounds as tho' it were a girl's name but would be worth checking out) and so we can put David somewhere around say 1730, and he could certainly have a son born in 1756, named for his father, grandfather and uncle.

Do you have anything on a David in Mansfield? Or in Ny State? This is the man I would pursue. Since he is not carried on, we do not know his wife's name; further work in Mansfield VRs, deeds and probate may help; could he possibly have married a sister of Jesse's wife (p.49). Abigail Smith descended from Thomas CLARK.

The names of your Elisha's children have some matching status with Jesse's family: Jesse5 married (2) Nabby (Abigail) Williams; Enoch married Anna Pierce - Anna sometimes called Nancy; and then there's Sarah (Sally) Hunt wife of Elijah. As you know, families named children after their own family members AND siblings' spouses. Jesse also had a daughter Abigail, another Anna.

Now this is speculation, but it does hang together. In a case like yours, such leads are very pertinent, and research seems to me to be vital.If you do not happen to have anything on David, I'd want to pursue him the next time I'm at CSL - probably within two weeks. I did not pursue David yesterday since I could not carry everybody's records with me; another thing: microfilm readers at CSL can be used for an hour by one person, after signing up for that hour - a nuisance but a reasonable requirement. I thought the library would not be busy the day before New Year's -- my mistake; I guess people had time off from work and took advantage of it.

This pbld. gen'y has no other David to be alive and adult in these deeds; it's curious the compiler has no more on him; do you have the abstract of Elisha's will of 1751 mentioning David,David's whereabouts, or family? It's possible that David too moved out - deeds may help here - and so the compiler lost track of him.

Would you like to try for the 1790 census for David? I'm always happy to have a client help herself if she can; then let me know; the 1790 census are of course at CSL if not available to you.

Please study the Eldredge Geny and let me know at yourconvenienec what you think of this report. I feel a little encouraged, nebulous tho' these clues are.

Best wishes for a wonderful 1991, with lots of great discoveries!

Sincerely,

Judith

When you have a man selling land in his home town, as Elisha did in 1795, and then going off the map, it is a fairly safe assumption (always keeping in mind the danger of generalities) that he moved; I suspect too that this is what this Elisha did. It is now of the greatest importance to try to find where he went. His father whose will you cited certainly did have a son old enough to have a son by 1795; this not by 1795! this complicates him. Yes for this Elisha.

However, what about David? If the compiler has it right, Mulford was followed by Jesse, b. 1713? Elisha, b. 1717/8 (who in this article has no son Elisha; "Elishama" sounds as this! it were a girl's name but would be worth checking out) and so we can put David somewhere around say 1750, and he could certainly have a son born in 1795, named for his father, grandfather and uncle.

William Eldredge, 1838 - who he?

I could pursue David here, but did not see his name in the Index. Mansfield for David is the way we should go, I think; until he is well researched, we have to consider him a good possibility; if he's a dead end, we can try another tack, but I'm as interested as I can be in what the deeds say for him; what Elisha pere's will says about him, where he was in the 1790 census.

Dear Marian :

Your interesting query does pose a problem. It makes me wish again I had a large library here, but I live in a very old, very small house, and storage space is a problem. How often I think of D.L.Jacobus, who had an extensive library of his own (which went to the Ct Hstl.Soc. after his death).

I descend from Samuel[1] Eldredge of the Boston-Cambridge, MA area; and later, RI; I have looked into what data I have but there is no Elisha. However, there was at least one other first generation Eldredge, if I remember correctly.

re your Elisha: I suspect the surname was properly "Eldridge." 17th and 18th century spelling can be problematic. That Elisha lived in Branford in 1774 does not necessarily mean that he was born there. I would think he could have enlisted at a place nearer that Groton,MA. That the given name "Elisha" was so prevalent suggests that yours had CT ties.

It looks as tho' your Elisha may have belonged to the family of Samuel[1] whose children moved on to Stonington,CT, for one place. In 1774 he lived in Branford; I cannot see that any search has been made into the Branford deeds; or even into probate for other members of his family,possibly;this search would be important.

My line of Eldredge moved west to Stonington, CT; Branford can be en route. Your Elisha may have moved west from RI; how much research has been done into RI records for Samuel's descendants? I doubt that Elisha came from LI but I suspect he came from the RI family. The given name "Clark" suggests the surname; have you researched Clark?

I have - for years - been compiling my son's genealogy; enclosed are copies of pages from the 1st chapter on Eldred/Eldredge. It is a big leap from Daniel's death in 1726 to your Elisha's birth in 1756, but actually, there appears to be only one generation missing. I enclose these pages so you will have these data and not have to have this much work done. I regret I do not have the names of all of Daniel's children; my son has the original copy and I have xeroxed pages but there seem to be some missing. Since we do not know the surname of Samuel I's wife, and I have made a new suggestion on the identity of the wife of Daniel[2], we do just not know the source of "Elisha."

Has any search been made into the Branford deeds? I would suggest that as a vital source and it certainly should be done. Not always but sometimes deeds tell whence a grantee came-- as you know.

In Early Massachusetts Marriages,Prior to 1800, 1st Book, Worcester Co., F.W.Bailey, I find that Peter Jennison m. Mehitable Singletary, 31 March 1769 (p.103);(there are other Jennisons); the marriage is credited to Sutton, Mass. People moved around so much!

Your letter states that "From the census, I have figured out they lingered in MA through Oct. 1780 when their second child was born;" site of birth from later census record for this child? I am wondering what census you used for October 1780?

I suspect Elisha may have moved from RI to eastern CT, along the Sound; have you looked into all those published RI Vital Records? Since you know the year of his birth - ca 1756 - the search into the many RI volumes of VR would be that much easier. I'd also look therein for a marriage of an Eldredge by 1756; we do not know what number child he might have been, but want to know what earlier ones there may have been to give us an approximate marriage date for the parents. Branford is a logical moving-on locale from RI. That is the route my Eldredges took.

The names of all of Elisha's children are important for research; you have given "Clark," which was probably a family surname; the others might offer clues; at the time they were born - after 1777 - families stuck pretty close to family names, given or surnames.

Have the Branford deeds been studied for Wheadon as well as Eldredge? I would consider that important.

In Wheeler's ....Stonington... pp 502-3,there are data on the Page Family; the only Mary married Thomas Miner;she born 1749. It's just worth mention that both "Page" and "Eldredge" was contemporaneaously in Stonington.

Iquestion that your Eldridge came from LI;no proof, but I suspect it was RI. Are you able to look into all those pbld. RI VRs? If not, there is a file at CSL.

Have you looked for a WHEADON genealogy? Try the Library of Congress catalog. Incidentally, I see that in 1777 Elisha married Mary Wheadon in Branford (your p.1); in 1774, Elisha "went to Groton, MA and enlisted." I see in Wheeler that "John Page..married Faith Dunster...1664.Removed to Groton, Mass." One child was bornat Watertown,MA;regd. in Stonington.

I would consider it of primary importance to comb the Branford deeds for any mention of Eldredge; these are at CSL on microfilm; or do you have access to them? Also, to look into RI data for a possible birth record for Elisha. Also, probate for both Eldredge and Wheadon in eastern CT would seem essentially basic research.

I would be glad to help you with this quest. For now, I am deducting costs of xeroxes and postage from your retainer; no further charge at this time. I hope I've helped!

Sincerely

Judith

ELDREDGE GENEALOGY.

THE name of Eldredge, or as it was originally written, Eldred, is Saxon. Eldred was the name of several kings of the Saxons in the eighth and ninth centuries. Eldred was King of Chester, A.D., 951. An Eldred was Saxon Archbishop of York (and Canterbury) in 1066 and according to the historian Thiery cursed William the Conqueror. The Eldreds were holders of lands in Wilts, Dorset, Somerset, Devon, Gloucester, Shropshire, Yorkshire and other counties at the time of the Domesday survey (A.D. 1085) and prior thereto, in the time of Edward the Confessor.

John Eldred, of Great Saxham, in Suffolk, descended from an ancient family claiming Saxon origin. Tradition says that he purchased the Great Saxham estates because of his belief that his ancestors, in remote ages, as Saxon kings, had held the Saxhams as their great Saxon home.

He was born in 1552 and died in 1632. He was a great traveler and his ships and merchandise went to all parts of the world. He was one of the founders of Virginia and from 1609 to 1624 was a member of His Majesty's Council for the Virginia Company of London. The brass to "John Eldred the Navigator," at Great Saxham, has the arms of the East India Merchants, the Levant or Turkey Merchants and the Russia Merchants Companies. He left four sons and two daughters. Thomas Lee, of Coton, in Shropshire (the seat of Launcelot Lee, Esq.) married Dorothy, granddaughter of John Eldred.

The Pilgrims who came to America in the Mayflower, in 1620, obtained a patent from the London Company and though contrary winds carried them northward to Cape Cod, they had intended to plant their Colony in "Virginia," near the mouth of the Hudson River.

As John Eldred of Great Saxham was at that time and for fifteen years, a director of the Virginia Company of London, it is possible that the Eldreds who appeared in New England between the years 1635 and 1645, viz: William, Robert, Samuel, John and Nathaniel, were in some way connected with his family.

From A Record of Some of the Descendants of William Eldredge of Yarmouth, Mass., Zoeth S. Eldredge, 1896

Some of the following data on Samuel and Daniel Eldredge were taken from Eldredge-Dutcher Genealogy, Josephine C. Frost, 1925; she was an experienced and highly-regarded genealogist.

The ancestry of Abigail[3] Eldredge (Daniel[2] Samuel[1])
the wife of James[3] Minor

ELDRED/ELDREDGE

SAMUEL[1] ELDRED

born almost certainly in England; ca 1623?

died after when he deeded land to his son John ( married Elizabeth ( ) , perhaps ca 1641 as their first known child was born in 1642

Samuel came to New England before "1641-2" when he was recruited as a new member of the "Ancient and Honorable" (History of the Military Company of the Massachusetts Now Called the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of the Massachusetts, 1637-1888*, Oliver Ayer Roberts, 5 vols., I:11); by 18 October 1659 he was made sergeant (Ibid)

In 1642 Samuel was living in, or somewhere near, Cambridge, Mass. (registration of the birth of a child there)

12 4 mo (June) 1648 Samuel Eldred was a witness; he testified in a suit of Edward Goffe against Richard Cutter for wrongfully detaining calves (History of Cambridge, Mass., 1630-1877, Lucian R. Paige,

In 1652 Samuel deposed that he was about 32 years old

9 2mo 1655 "goodman Eldridge" was of Braintree (Boston (Mass.)Records, Dorchester Records, Vol.4 p.70)

18 October 1659 It was ordered that Sergeant Eldred should pay Edward Lane of Boston, for two years' rent of farm and stock at Rumney Marsh (A Documentary History of Chelsea, Mass., 1624-1824, Mellen Chamberlain, 1908, 2 vols., I:645). Samuel was an early tenant of the Keayne farm, 1657 to 1659 (Ibid)

29 September 1660, a deed was granted by the Sachems of "Narrowgansets" to the Commissioners of the United Colonies, "all our whole country," signed and sealed in the presence of Richard Smith, Samll Eldridge (his mark), Newcom the Indian (mark), Awashons (mark); sighed also with the marks of grantors and Sachems Chirssoquus, Noneglad and Scuttup. Recorded 7 September 1664 at Hartford. (Mass. Archives 30:83)

* This organization is still active

9. 2. 1661 Samuel Eldred, inhabitant, of Rumney Marsh, sold to William Hudson of Boston, four heifers; three cows and four bulls

From this, the inference is drawn that while Samuel was a grantee in 1660, he may not have moved his family for a while; however

3 July 1663 Samuel Eldred was now among the earliest inhabitants of Narragansett (Newport, RI Historical Magazine, IV:244-246)

1670, July 13. He wrote from Wickford to Thomas Stanton, at Stonington:—"Mr. Stanton, Sir: This is to inform you how the case stands with the town of Wickford, in respect of Rhode Island. This very day there came down, Mr. Samuel Wilson and Mr. Jireh Bull and Thomas Mumford, with his black staff, and upon this sad accident; and would have panelled the jury, whereupon I told them that they had nothing to do here, to panel a jury; but if they would look upon the corpse, they might, which several of them did. Then they commanded, in his Majesty's name, some to serve, and commanded myself to serve as a juryman upon the inquest, and commanded John Cole and several others, which did refuse. I also warned them to serve in a jury for us, as we were under Connecticut, but they would not, but commanded us not to bury the man till a jury had passed on it by virtue of their power. So there was mighty commanding in his Majesty's name on both sides, and mighty threatening of carry to jail, insomuch that neither party could get twelve on a side. But at last they commanded all that were on their side to come out and they would panel a jury, if there were but six. Upon that account, the doors were shut where the corpse was, so they called the people to bear witness that they were obstructed in their power, and commanded us in his Majesty's name, not to bury the man, and told us that they would return our answer to their masters. We told them we would return their actings and words to our magistrates. So they commanded all the party to go with them. And so we proceeded and buried the man, and have searched for the murderer, but cannot find him, and therefore, would intreat you to send out after him, and send some this way, for we have never an officer here to grant me one. Sir, I would entreat you be strong and send away word to Connecticut by the first, for we are in greater trouble than ever we were, and like to be in worse, therefore, mind your promises and stand by us. John Cole stood to it and assisted as much as could be, not having taken the oath. Captain Hudson has not been here since, and sir, the people will fain be doing, and beg to find that if it be not mended suddenly, it will be bad times here. Not more at present, but remain, yours to serve,

SAMWILL ELDREDGE."

DANIEL[2] ELDRED/ELDREDGE (Samuel[1])

born probably in the mid 1650's, and in Cambridge, Mass.

died 13 August 1726 in North Kingstown, R.I.

married Mary (Niles? see following chapter on Niles) she died after 24 December 1750 when her will was probated

In 1925 there was published an Eldredge-Dutcher Genealogy, compiled by Josephine C. Frost, an excellent genealogist. The following bio' is taken from her account of Daniel

"He was old enough to sign a petition in Kingston, R.I." 29 July 1679. He married about 1687, Mary, whose maiden name is not known but exhaustive research inclines one to the belief that she may have been a 'Phillips,' although no documentary evidence has been found to sustain it."

(JHL rejects this lineage, suggesting "Niles," qv)

"He was taxed in Kingston, R.I. Sep. 6,1687 and listed among the freemen there in 1696.

" ' Monday, Sep. 7,1702, Progress of Governor Dudley of Mass. and the Governor and Council of Rhode Island. This morning, his Excellency, attended by the Lt. Governor, Col. Townsend, Col. Byfield, with several other gentlemen, went from Bristol over to the Narragansett Country, or King's Province and landed at Rochester (Kingston) where they were received with all respect by the gentlemen of the place. Capt. Daniel Eldredge attended with his company of arms, and his Excellency's commission from her Royall Majesty for the command of the militia, etc. of that country or Province, was there read and published.

(signed) ISAAC ADDINGTON, Sec. "

"The compiler of Old Homes in Stonington,CT states that he came to that place in 1704 'as the town records show' and there he built his home, still (1925) standing, later known as the Elisha Bennet house, on the old road from the head of the Mystic (River) to Wolf Neck 'set back a little from the gaze of the traveller and sheltered by old apple trees.' He worshipped in the Road Church and here 'his children were baptized.' Some of them returned to Kingston, but his grandson Christopher, of his son James, came to the old home to live. In 1908 it was owned by Benjamin Brown."

The Eldredges were not credited by Wheeler as an early Stonington family per se, although he makes references to them. There are entries in Mansaaeh Minor's Liary:

13 April 1703 "Capn Eldredg & his family came to the farme"

(This was something less than two years before Abigail Eldredge married James Minor)

4 June 1703 "wee shared (sheared) for capn Eldredg"

12 August 1703 "Eldredge put away his rams"

6 April 1707 "captn Eldredgs children ware baptized"

22 May 1708 "Eldridg washed sheep"

4 September 1708 "mrs. eldrig was admited" to the church

2 October 1708 "cap eldrig kild a bare"

On 5 May 1705 the Inventory of the estate of Samuel Mason of Stonington was taken by James Dean, Adam Gallup and Daniel Eldredge

In 1708 Daniel Eldredge was a selectman of Stonington (The Stonington Chronology)

25 March 1709 Capt. Daniel Eldredge "formerly of Kingston, but later of Stonington, CT," purchased 100 acres of Joseph Dolliver "in ye Narragansett, Colony of Rhode Island," having for his neighbors Ludowick Updike and the heirs of Capt. John Fones. About this time, perhaps previous to it, he purchased a new dwelling house in "the Narragansett," from Alexander Huling, the land lying between that formerly belonging to Major Richard Smith, dec'd, Ludowick Updike and Capt. Rhodes. The kingston records have been badly mutilated by fires and the date on this deed is missihg, but it just precedes the first one mentioned and they give about the probable time of his leaving Stonington and making his residence in North Kingston....

(Quoted from Eldredge-Dutcher Genealogy, p.7)

In October 1715 he represented North Kingston to the General Assemby of Rhode Island (Ibid)

The Eldredge house, later called the Elisha Bennet house because owned by him, is still standing, low and brown, on the old road from head of Mystic to Wolf Neck, set back a little from the gaze of the traveller, cozily sheltered by some old apple trees, whose boughs hang shelteringly over this old landmark, with its broad stone doorsteps, which have been trodden by so many feet in bygone days : for here came Capt. Daniel Eldredge (then called Eldred) from Rhode Island in 1704, as the town records and Joshua Hempstead's Diary show, and here at the Road Church his children were baptized, and he undoubtedly built this house. Some of his children went back to Kingstown, and James is recorded there, but his son, Christopher, came here to this place, and lived after marrying Molly Hempstead, granddaughter of Joshua Hempstead. Rev. George Whitfield came here while he was visiting Mr. Hempstead in 1747, who lived quite near by.

16 August 1712 - A quarrel arose at the house of Daniel Eldredge in Stonington between Daniel Gard and William Whitear, a stranger...the said Whitear received a mortal wound whereof he languished seven days & then dyed 23 September 1712 - At the Superior Court held at New London, Daniel Gard was indicted for murder.

11 November 1712 - At the adjourned term, the Court was of the opinion it was but manslaughter

Dear Marian,

Thank you for your letter of 12 October and all the additional information. I regret to report that I got "carried away" when I found Branford mentioned in the church record index under ELDRED in the Warren Church records, but I should not have. The first thing that I did the next time that I went to the state library was look in the microfilm of the Warren Congregational Church for that reference. These microfilms are of the original records (L.H. 4290, #390, Warren Society, 1750-1823; Warren Church of Christ, vols 2 & 5, 1756-1931). In 2:19, the reference that you have already seen is found: Nov. 20, 1785, Naamah, wife of Elisha ELDRED recommended from the church in Marlborough. It was the other volume, 5:64-65, that had the reference to Branford, namely that Naamah, wife of Elisha ELDRED was recommended by the church in Branford, also Nov. 20, 1785.

What I found when I looked was that the latter reference was apparently a copy of earlier records set up in the form of lists, in columns. On page 19 in vol. 2, an Abel PAGE was made a member, recommended from Branford on the same day as Naamah (which I now realize is "Naomi"). In Vol. 5, p. 64-65, Abel also precedes Naamah on the list, but in the column headed "letter from," Marlborough is on his line and Branford on hers. Someone has put a small #1 by the Branford and a #2 by Marlborough, indicating that in copying, the items got reversed. Whoever created the church index that I originally consulted did not notice that and caused us all this trouble! It is clear that this is not the right Elisha.

The Barbour Collection of Connecticut Vital Records lists the following:

ELDRED, Elisha m. Naamah OWEN, Oct. 6, 1785 (Warren V.R. 1:350)
OWEN, Naamah, d. Joel & Anne, b. Oct. 28, 1760 (Hebron V.R. 2:218) - Part of Marlborough was in Hebron then

The state library Connecticut Church Index lists:

OWEN, Naomi, d. Joel & Anna, bp. Nov. 1761 (Marlborough Congregational Church, MAJ:42)

Obviously, this eliminates the Kent/Warren family.

from Betty Linsley (Mrs Eldridge)

Actually, in launching into this, I have gotten ahead of the story of my researches. As I told you in my last letter, I found the Branford reference on my first trip to the state library, and did not look for the records I have just cited because I wanted to look in the actual records of the Branford Congregational Church to see if they had recorded a letter of dismission for Elisha and/or Naamah, or whatever. I spent some time in the church archives, searching the years when Elisha was presumably in Branford. I found the original marriage entry and his name is clearly spelled with an "A." I don't think that changes anything, however. It is a matter of someone writing down what the name sounded like, and, since it doesn't appear that he stayed here for long, he may not have been very well-known.

Obviously, I found no letter of dismission in 1784 or 1785, but I have to admit that there wasn't much in the early 1780's anyhow. The minister who married Elisha and Mary was sick for several years and finally died in 1784. The new minister came in a year later, so it is a sparce period for records. Therefore, I didn't feel that the lack of a dismission letter was significant. I also verified the WHEADON records that I had found in the state library church index, and then I went next door to the town hall and verified the vital record items that I had found in the Barbour index at the state library. This is where I found a discrepancy in the wives of the two Thomas Wheadons.

To summarize, I had found the following:

Branford Vital Records

WHEADON, Thomas m. Eunice SWAIN, May 6, 1714 (3:38)
Thomas, s. Thomas & Eunice, b. July 10, 1722 (3:51)
Thomas Jr. m. Mary PAGE, both of Branford, April 19, 1744 (3:114)
Thomas, s. Thomas, Jr. & Mary, b. May 24, 1747 (3:114)

Branford Congregational Church Records

WHEADON, Mary, d. Thomas & Mary, bp., Aug. 1, 1756 (1:59)
Mary m. Elisha ALDRIDGE, Feb. 27, 1777 (1:111)
Thomas m. Mary HEATH, Sept. 8, 1747 (1:102)
Thomas bd., Oct. 26, 1751 (1:89)

What this seems to suggest is that your Mary was the daughter of Thomas, Jr. and Mary PAGE. Thomas, his father, had died by the time she was being baptised, so it was no longer necessary to call him, "Jr." However, Thomas, Jr. and Mary had a son, Thomas, in May 1747. It would be more likely that this Mary was Mary PAGE, since the Thomas who married Mary HEATH didn't do so until September 1747. As you know from your sheets, Thomas, Sr.'s wife, Elizabeth was bd., 4 Sept 1746. Undoubtedly, Thomas then married Mary HEATH.

Incidentally, Elizabeth was Elizabeth (POTTER) LUDDINGTON, widow of John LUDDINGTON. I found confirmation of this in Donald Lines Jacobus, Families of Ancient New Haven, New Haven: 1923, p. 1966. Jacobus, as you may know, was a very respected genealogist, who was particularly knowledgeable regarding New Haven genealogy. Also, under the POTTER family, Jacobus states that: Elizabeth, dau. John & Elizabeth (HOLT) POTTER m. (2) 7 Oct 1734, Thomas Whedon, of Branford (p.1111).

Further identification of your Mary WHEADON's mother, Mary, is found in the Branford Land Records:

7:480 - 30 Oct 1754
Daniel & Hannah PAGE distribute their property to their children. Among the latter is "Mary, wife of Thomas WHEADON."

8:91 - 20 July 1757
Thomas WHEDON & Mary WHEDON, his wife, of Branford, for the sum of ten pounds, ten shillings received of John MONRO sell "land...which our Hond. Father Danl. Page gave to ye sd Mary Whedon..."

10:16 - 21 Apr 1775
Mary WHEDON of Branford, for the sum of three pounds, thirteen shillings received of Ithiel RUSSELL "thirteen acres... descending to me from my Hond. Mother Hannah Page, dec'd..."

I also have a correction on Mary (PAGE) WHEADON's death. The date you have on your sheet (2) is the date a member list was made for the Branford Congregational Church, and a Mary WHEADON was listed as a member. At a later date, "died" was written alongside her name (2:8). I wonder if this is even the right Mary. Wouldn't she and Thomas have gone to Canada by then? I wonder if they might have been getting ready to leave in 1775 when she was selling land. If that was the case, might the elopement story be true, but that they came to Branford from some place else where her parents were living?

I do have some vital record information for Mary PAGE from the Branford Vital Records:

PAGE, Daniel m. Hannah JOHNSON, January 3, 1710 (3:33)
Mary, dau. Daniel & Hannah, b. September 16, 1719 (3:44)
Daniel, s. of George, b. May 2, 1683 (1:211)

There was nothing on this family in the church records, but I found a family genealogy for PAGE, and I photocopied some pages for you. There were more details about the first two generations, but I wasn't sure how much you would want. I can always get the rest for you if you are interested.

I looked for the children of Elisha and Mary at the state library in the Barbour Index of Vital Records, the index of church records, and the index of Bible records, and I found nothing. These are all statewide indexes, and presumably cover all available records before 1850. And, although these include Branford records, I also looked in the Branford Vital Records at the town hall, but to no avail. Finally, when I was at the New Haven Hall of Records working for other clients, I took a few minutes and looked for ELDRIDGE in their vital records, but there was nothing.

Of the female line information that you sent me, the only thing that I can add at the moment is about Ann HARVEY. Our town historian, who has loaned me her notes on Wheadon, states that Ann was Ann SMALL, widow of Francis HARVEY. However, Jacobus states (p.722) that "HARVEY, Francis, a Frenchman, desired to marry Ann SMALL, servant of Mr. YALE, Jan 1660, but court approved not." Nevertheless, (p. 1966) he gives Thomas WHEDON's wife as "Ann HARVEY." At any rate, our historian (Jane Bouley) says that Thomas WHEADON was originally bound to John MEIGS in England as a apprentice to learn the tanner trade, and that he came to Guilford with MEIGS. I have no reference for this.

I, also, am descended from Daniel and Dorcas (ROSE) SWAINE, on two lines, both through their daughter, Deborah, who married Peter TYLER, Sr. According to my records, William SWAINE came to Branford from Wethersfield (CT). I am sure your reference to Watertown, CT, must be in error. There was no Watertown in Connecticut at that time. There was, however, one in Massachusetts Bay, near Boston, and the Wethersfield people all came from the Boston area to Wethersfield. He may have been in Watertown, MA, in 1635, but he was also one of the first settlers of Wethersfield, so I would think he must have been there by then. The Connecticut Register & Manual, 1984, Hartford: Secretary of the State, 1984, p. 545, says that Wethersfield was settled in 1634 and named in 1637.

And now, I must get back to Elisha and the many places where information isn't! I spent quite a bit of time going through the Branford Land Records at the town hall, hoping that Elisha might have bought land and sold it after he moved - so that we might find out where he went when he left Branford. No such luck! The only place in any Branford record that his name is found is the marriage record. There were records for Thomas WHEADON, but almost nothing in the time period when Elisha would have been in town, and, as you have in your records, Mary (WHEADON) ELDRIDGE probably left town with her husband during the Revolution, or just after it. There were no Thomas WHEDONs here after that.

Having had no luck finding Elisha in Branford (he isn't even in the state lists of Revolutionary War soldiers), I tried "fishing" at the state library through microfilms of probate records. I went through the packets for ELDRED/ELDRIDGE (and ALDRICH/ALDRIDGE) in probate districts where the probate index indicated several of the surname. Although I did spend a little time with the Warren/Kent family (it was hard to give up), I concentrated, first, in Stonington, CT. This is on the coast, and it seemed reasonable that Elisha might easily have made his way to Branford from there. Others did. There were a number of ELDRIDGE families, but no Elishas. I also went through the Parkhurst genealogical notes on New London families. He was another genealgist who had quite a bit of information not in official records. There was nothing.

Next, I looked through the Stafford probate district, because there were some Elishas there, as well as a number of others of the family name. Nothing fit. Then I spent some time with the Windham probate reels, because that is where the Mansfield records are, and, you will remember, there was that Elisha on your computer sheet from "New Haven, Mansfield." (I checked the other indexes, again, for him and could find no trace.) There was a probate packet for an Elisha who died in 1755 in Mansfield. (ELDRIDGE, Elisha, 1755, Mansfield, Windham Dist., #1284) He had two sons, Jesse and Elisha, the latter being the executor of his father's will. This family was very tempting, for Elisha, Jr. would probably have been of an age to be having a child the next year, but there was nothing in the probate papers to suggest anything of the sort. It also seems odd, but not impossible that he would be coming down to Branford from that part of the state. If you are not familiar with the geography of Connecticut, I am enclosing a photocopy of a map from Ancestry's RED BOOK. I might add, that it would have been almost as odd to come down from Kent, but other Branford people were moving up there, so that could have explained such a contact. Kent was on the normal migration pattern from the coast, northwest and into New York state.

I also went through probate records for New London, Pomfret, Sharon and Plainfield districts, because there were listings in them for the surname during a period, roughly 1756-1830, and particularly after 1780, when I thought some relative might have died and made a bequest to our Elisha, with some indication in a will or distribution of what the relationship was and where he might have been living. I did the same thing earlier for WHEADON probate. Unfortunately, most of Mary WHEADON's relatives (at least those who might have willed something to her) had died by the time she married Elisha. A thought occurs to me. Do you have any idea where in Canada her parents went? I am told that Canada has quite good records. Do you suppose that Elisha and Mary went with them to Canada? Possibly not, if the elopement story is correct.

I also spent a little time at the Connecticut Historical Society in Hartford going through their genealogical papers (mostly notes made by genealogists) on ELDRIDGE. There were a lot of folders, but most concerned the Stonington branch, and, again, I found nothing. (I am not charging you for this, for I had already run over your suggested $100.00, and I just took the time when I had finished my business for other clients.)

Finally, I read through the Branford Town Meeting records for the period of the Revolutionary War, hoping Elisha's name might be there. They spent quite a bit of time raising troops (drafting them when there weren't enough volunteers) to meet the colony/state's quotas and to defend Branford, but no names were mentioned. There were also committees to care for the needs of the soldiers' families while they were away, but, again, no names.

I have exhausted just about all the Connecticut sources that I can think of to search for you, and I do feel badly that I encouraged you about the Warren/Kent family. I should know better. About the only thing that I can suggest that might be done, further, is to try to track him down in Mansfield by going there and searching on the spot, in the library and the town hall. I have no idea what kind of records the library has, but sometimes local diaries, and such, will just happen to have something, and a search of the land records could turn him up. However, it is a real long shot (since we have no idea that this is actually the right place), and it would be expensive. Mansfield is about an hour's drive from here, and I might well need two or three hours to do the searching. That is to say I would estimate the cost at $60.00 to $75.00. I would certainly understand if you wished to pass on it.

In any case, I shall keep Elisha on my mind, and you can be sure that you will hear from me if I ever run into any clue to his identity. I do not like to fail!

I hope that the few additions and corrections on the other lines will be of help to you. Please feel free to contact me if there is anything here that is not clear, and thank you for all the information that you have sent me. I am very glad to have it.

Cordially,

Betty
